ENGROSSED in her 'prize' is Mrs. Helen

Morse, a teacher of German at North Farmington High School, who was honored recently as an outstanding instructor of German by the general consulate of the German Federal Republic. Several of her students won trips to Germany as prizes in statewide and nationwide German contests. The general consulate said in a letter to Mrs. Morse that it lacked means to finance a trip to Germany for her, but sent a special book entitled "Lyrik des Abendlands" by Hanser to honor her for "outstanding educa-tional performance."
