Groves-Walker Post News

The meeting was well attended Thursday night by a number of members that had not been seen around the Home for a long time. It was mighty nice to see Norman Lee, Ray McCrumb, Dr. Aschenbrenner, Virgil Griffin and Dr. Norton. It is hoped that they will be in regular attendance.

Many of the local citizens were also present, including Ernest V. Bianchard, Township Supervisor; Frank Steele, Farmington Township Chairman for Defense; Harry McCracken, Township Clerk; Leo Glusneuer, Mayor of Farmington, arrived about the time the meeting was over, but due to a previously arranged meeting, it was impossible for him to attend at an earlier hour.

Mr. Tagg of the Farmington Enterprise was at the meeting and states that his paper will co-operate to its utmost in promoting anything that is good for the defense of our country.

The Legion Auxiliary was in attendance, with about one third of their membership. The chairman of the various organizations, was set up to cooperate with one another. Mr. Durum, of Kiwanis Club, Dr. Halsted of Exchange Club, Mr. Hunt of the Boy Scouts, Mrs. Nelson of the Girl Scouts, Charles Kowalski, Chief of Police, and Ernest Bianchard of the Township. Joseph DeVriendt explained how the Sheriff's department will participate in the defense program.

Commander Niles of the Groves-Walker Post gave a talk explaining why the meeting was called, and asked that all organizations cooperate to the utmost.

Mason Gibson, vice-commander of the 17th District, gave a short talk on what Redford, Detroit and its vicinity would do in the Defense program, and offered help to the Farmington group.

On December 27, Saturday evening, there will be a card party in the Legion Home. The Auxiliary is doing a fine job of entertaining and the lunch is delicious. The public is invited to attend these parties, so bring your friends and get acquainted with your comrades and neighbors.

Choirs To Sing Cantata Music

Choirs of three Farmington churches will present Christmas cantatas on Sunday evening, December 21, in their respective churches.

The choir of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, under the direction of Mrs. Leo Gilmeister, will give "We Have Seen His Star" by Leo Rogers at 8 p. m. Mrs. James T. Warner, Jr., will accompany the singers on the organ.

It will include seven numbers: "We Have Seen His Star," by the entire choir; "Bethlehem," a soprano solo by Mrs. Gilmeister; "Thy Light is Come," by the choir with a baritone solo by Elliot Tyler; "Golden Slumbers," a soprano and alto duet by Mrs. Elliot Tyler and Mrs. Dorothy Smith, with the women's and men's choruses; "This is the Christ," an alto solo by Mrs. Nellie Esch; and "Glory Be to God on High," by the entire choir and the women's and men's choruses.

The Methodist Church choir will present their cantata "The Light Eternal" by H. W. Petrie at 7:30 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Veitche with Edith Parker at the piano.

Soloists will be Alice Edwards, Maurice Wilcox, Roy Jones, Edie Seegar, Gertrude Richardson, Helen Elsenlord, Ivar Anderson, Ernest Rehn, Edith Wilson, and Clara Gossett.

The numbers will be "Praise the Great Redeemer," "It Speaks to the World," "God Hath Given a Son," "While Shepherds Watched," "Star of Bethlehem," "Dawning," "He Came to Give Salvation," "Born in a Manger," "Light of Glory," "The Message," "The Light of All the World," "Angels Voices," and the finale, "Lead Me." A scripture reading and prayer will be made by the Rev. Howard Buschling.

"While Shepherds Watched" is the name of the cantata to be given by the Baptist Church choir.
