Arctic Cat 72

Cheetah
New Arctic Cat Cheetah. Named after a runner for a reason. This is the one with the special air chassis that was developed and tested in conjunction to perform dependably, regardless of snow and weather conditions. Whether it's wet-deep powder or hard pack and ice, rutted mud-mountain crest or soft and slippery spring snow. These are difficult and unpredictable conditions to race under. But they're not that much different from the conditions you encounter as a sports rider. So get with a runner you can count on.

Panther

The main reason people trade up to Arctic Cat. After you've been around snowmobiles for awhile, you recognize the value of lightweight aluminum chassis, a torsion spring/ride suspension system, and a balanced chassis layout. You learn about traction, stability, ride and flotation. And you find out which machine has it all. The Snow Panther. Has been setting standards for comfort, control, and durability for some time now and 1972 is no exception. You can count on it.

2 British Poets Due At S'craft

Two British poets, Peter Redgrave, and D. M. Thomas, will read their poetry at Schoolcraft College at two different times on Thursday, Oct. 21.

Peter Redgrave, 39, was educated at Taunton School, Somerset, in England and at Queens College, Cambridge, where he was open scholar and state scholar in natural sciences. He has been visiting poet to Buffalo University, New York, and was Gregory Fellow in Poetry at Leeds University, Yorkshire, England for three years. He is at present resident poet at the Falmouth School of Art, Cornwall, England.

D.M. Thomas was born in 1935 in Cornwall, England. He has published two collections of poetry, has edited an anthology of poems about Cornwall, and has been widely anthologized on both sides of the Atlantic.

The visiting poets will appear at 3 p.m. and again at 8 p.m. in room D-100 of the Schoolcraft Physical Education Building. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

24 Prizes In Costume Parade

Wonderland Center's annual children's Halloween costume parade and party will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 30.

Two dozen prizes—including record players, tape recorders, cassettes, radios and games—will be awarded. The contest will be staged at the west end of the mall. The shopping center is located at Plymouth and Middle Belt roads.

All children in costume will receive a free goody bag.

Judges, chosen from among adults in the audience, will select four top winners in the categories of prettiest, funniest, ugliest and most original.

Parade time for children under age six is 11 a.m., and for children ages seven through 12 it's at 1:30 p.m. No advance registration is necessary.

Gundella Will Demonstrate Love Spells

Gundella, the entertaining Garden City witch, will appear Friday, Oct. 29 at Wonderland Center, Plymouth at Middle Belt in Livonia.

Following the custom of the green witches of Scotland, Gundella will dye herself green. She will also demonstrate how to make a voodoo doll and show how to cast spells designed to attract the opposite sex.

Her demonstration, to begin at 7:30 p.m. on the stage at the west end of the mall, is open to the general public but recommended for a mature, adult audience.

Heads Hudson Press Bureau

A 22-year-old Farmington girl, Linda Goodman, has been appointed news bureau manager at the J.L. Hudson Co. in downtown Detroit.

Miss Goodman will be directly responsible for the company's press relations. She joined Hudson's 13 months ago as a news bureau staff member. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and resides in Echo Valley in Farmington.

Twp. Officials Plan Meeting

ROCHESTER
Township officials from the 18th and 19th Congressional Districts, including Southfield, Farmington and Redford Township, will attend an educational meeting on Friday, Oct. 29, at the Rochester Elks, 600 East University Drive, Rochester. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m.
