

American Legion

Notes

Have you mailed your return card to reserve your place at the dinner on Saturday, March 21? If not, you had better call Farmington 1342 right now, in order to have a place at the party. The dinner is being held at the Farmington Town Hall, for the Post Commanders, and the birthday anniversary of the Post. All members of the Legion and their families, the Auxiliary and records are cordially invited.

All Legionnaires are fighting this war on one of three fronts—some on the present war front, some in the defense shops and others buying Bonds and serving in Civilian Defense. At this time we would call the attention of all World War veterans that there is need of more help in civilian defense, and it is the desire of your comrades of the last war, that you respond to this call for help. Call the Chief of Police of Farmington or the Adjutant of the Post, phone 1342, and information will be given you.

Are you saving your waste paper for the Boy Scouts? Save all the other waste material that goes to make up the things that are needed in helping to win this war, too. If you are not saving now, start today, for every little bit helps, and it will take considerable help on the part of everyone to put this over.

Are you attending one of the First Aid classes?

The class for air raid wardens will start next week, and it is necessary that you register now in order to be in line to take this training.

Metals Will Melt

Nearly all metals will melt in strong nitric acid; gold cannot. It takes a mixture of two strong acids, known as aqua regia, or "kingly water," to dissolve what has been called the king of metals.
