THE FISHER XP-65

Free-Piston 3-way Speaker System

The Fisher XP-65 reproduces the entire audio spectrum from an incredibly low 33 Hz to beyond the limits of human hearing (20,000 Hz). The XP-65 is capable of such fantastic bass because it has high-efficiency bass driver with a heavy magnet structure and a highly compliant half-rail surround. Crossover takes place at 600 Hz, at which point the sealed, separately enclosed 5-inch mid-range driver smoothly takes over. Crossover from mid-range to treble occurs at 3,000 Hz. The treble speaker is an extremely wide-dispersion cone-type tweeter that provides transparent and brilliant reproduction of the high end of the audio spectrum. The low-mass tweeter cone accounts for the especially good transient response the speaker delivers. A special fibrous damping material prevents annoying distortion caused by cone resonance.
