HURD FILES PETITIONS FOR COUNTY SHERIFF

Stephen E. Hurd, 1660 Oxford Road, Berkley, resigned this week from the staff of the Oakland County Sheriff's office, after petitions had been circulated and filed by his friends, placing him in the field of candidates for Oakland County Sheriff at the September 15 Primary.

Hurd submitted his resignation to Sheriff Spencer C. Howarth Monday evening, stating, "After seven years of active service in various divisions of the Sheriff's department, my many friends throughout the County, have seen fit to circulate petitions in my behalf. Therefore I see fit to tender my resignation."

Hurd assisted in the incorporation of the City of Berkley, and was later president of that village. He served as deputy in the disbursing office of PWA during 1933, and since that time has been engaged in law enforcement work. He set up the present Liquor Enforcement Division for the Sheriff's Office.

Methodist Board Votes To Change Charter

The official board of the Methodist Church met Sunday night and gave its approval for the transformation of the church charter from the pulp-centered to the altar-centered form. This action was recommended to the board by the Men's Club project committee and by the Board of Trustees.

The sum of five hundred dollars was included in the church budget for music, organist and director.

Mrs. Georgia Cartwright of Grand Rapids returned home Friday afternoon after spending the past few weeks with friends in and around Farmington.

MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING—Livonia S/D No. 2 July 14, 1942

Meeting called to order at 8:20 p.m. Mr. Krumkow presiding. All members of the School Board except Mr. Schroeder present and 27 residents.

The Chairman asked for a reading of the minutes of last annual meeting to which there being no objection raised were ordered approved.

Treasurer's report for the year read. Moved by R. Parrish, supported by Mr. Redding that this report be accepted. Carried.

The Chairman reported on the budget for the ensuing year stating that the Board is requesting an operating rate of 7 mills and debt service rate of 1 1/4 mills, thus making a total rate for school purposes of 8 1/4 mills.

The Chair stated that the next matter for consideration was the question of providing free text books in future. The suggestion was offered that parents be requested to turn in to the school without charge their present books. Considerable discussion followed and thereafter it was moved and supported that this meeting approve the furnishing of free text books in future. Carried unanimously.

The Chairman reviewed the present status of the proposed school addition setting forth the inability of this Board to secure grant in aid from the Federal Government and thus making it necessary for the school to resort to half day sessions and a ten month term.

This is the solution offered by your Board but suggestions from the taxpayers would be welcomed now or at any time. Much discussion ensued. Motion by Mrs. Krumkow, supported by Mr. Redding that this meeting favor a ten month term for the ensuing year and that the School Board get together with the Wayne County Supervising Staff and iron out a course of study. A standing vote gave say 22 and nay 2. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Redding and supported that this meeting accord a standing vote of appreciation for the good work of the School Board during the past year.

Army War Show Begins July 25

War comes to Michigan next Saturday night!

On July 25, the United States Army will draw up its battle lines over the University of Detroit campus for an all-out production presenting a picture of War's destruction, in its own War Show, 1912 style.

Nothing in modern war is left to the imagination.

Tanks, dark monsters of battle, and tank destroyers will roar in an echoing rumble that will shake the terraces in almost deafening reverberation as it defies the machine gun, the mortar, to which will be added the action of field artillery and the rapid fire weapons of Uncle Sam's infantry and the fact action of the jeeps.

Nearly a million people have witnessed the Army War Show in four weeks, and thousands have been turned away after all the seats were gone in previous performances of the Army War Show at Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Akron.

Equipped Task Force of over 2,000 American expert combat troops, and 72 officers, under the command of Col. W. T. Bais, the Army War Show reveals the Army of the United States in action for nine hours, starting at 8:30 p.m., in the University of Detroit Stadium, Livernois at McNichols Road.

It may be well to point out, however, that the Army War Show is more far more than an evening's entertainment. It is spectacular and thrilling, but the Army War Show, as so no show ever before conceived or offered to the public, is a show with MEANING.

The Army War Show is a golden opportunity for every citizen—perhaps the only one he will have—to become better acquainted with his Army. It's an event which will bring to every taxpayer full realization of how his money is being invested for his own personal safety in monster, mechanized machines of war, how his sons and friends are being trained to fight in his defense. The Army War Show is a dramatic lesson in pride of Country, pride of Citizenship and pride of Army.

Again, those men and women who are working so mightily in the War production effort will find in the Army War Show the reason for what they are doing. As the creators of the tools by which victory will be won, they will see those tools in action, realize their deadly precision and potency. The guns, tanks, planes and equipment used in the War Show, training equipment to be sure, but none the less effective, will prove to be the inspiration for added attention to that extra detail, the details which may mean life or death to the machine's operator, victory or defeat in the battle.

Finally, although war is the most inhuman of professions, the Army War Show is being presented for the most humane of all causes—to aid the women and children placed in actual need or dire want by the pursuance of it.

Every cent made from the presentation of the Army War Show will go into the Army Emergency Relief Fund, a fund which provides financial aid to service men's wives and children, who may find themselves in straightened circumstances as a result of unexpected assignment to special duty, or the death of the husband and father.

If there were any other than the days of total war, or if this were any other than the Army War Show, to describe the event as "educational" might ruin it for public consumption.

But this is the Army War Show. With its displays, exhibits and story, with its modernized, Mare-like war equipment, its spectacular, showmanlike action all pointed toward making MEANING of the Army's work entirely clear to those who are supporting and actually working in the nation's war effort, this is one production that cannot miss. Every man, woman and child in Michigan should see it.

MANY COMMUTERS ARE NOW USING GREYHOUND LINES

Morning and evening commuter bus service recently established by Great Lakes Greyhound Lines between Farmington and Detroit has proved a success, according to P. L. Radcliffe, general traffic manager. The morning bus leaves here at 7:44 and reaches the Detroit terminal at 8:31.

At 7:20 p.m., a bus leaves Detroit and reaches Farmington at 8:07. The bus runs as far as Howell and serves the towns and resorts west of here. The fact that bus service is available has resulted in many people taking cottages who otherwise, because of the consumption, would have been unable to do so.
