"Christian Citizenship" was the program topic for the day, and several members responded to roll call with their personal definitions of it.

An article, "The Way to Win the War—the Dry Way in 1917 and the Wet Way in 1941" was read by Mrs. A. C. McDonald. Mrs. Ralph Noble and Mrs. F. M. Warner, presided by Roger Babson, Dr. Morton S. Rice, and others. Mrs. Arthur Williams gave a temperance reading of 50 years ago entitled "Convict Joe".

Delicious refreshments and a social half hour followed the meeting.

RAMMED AND CAPTURED

RUSSIA—Although this picture was made by the Axis propaganda machine several months ago it has just passed through British and U. S. censorship. It shows a Russian tank put out of action after being rammed by a German tank. The crew is being taken prisoner. In the present action in the south, the Red Army contests every mile of ground in the present Nazi push at Rostov.

thy, spiritual education director for the seventeenth district, will lead the devotions. The state treasurer, state corresponding secretary and the seventeenth district president are expected to be present.

Plans were made for the holding of the seventeenth district Women's Temperance Union annual convention at the Farmington Town Hall on November 6.

Lucky Horseshoes
On the walls of the castle in Warsaw which today is the residence of the president of Poland is a painting of a Polish knight on a horse with shoes made of gold. It is believed that the notion of lucky horseshoes arose from finding these golden shoes.

Who Has Buying Power?

All meat looks alike to the meat packers, particularly since the passage of fair trade laws. If one meat buyer wants to buy inferior grades at low prices, that's his privilege. But we defy him to show us any way in which he can buy quality meat at any price under what we pay.

We don't want to sell low-grade meat, because we don't believe it's a bargain at any price. On good meat, we can give you every price advantage plus our reputation for good service.
