Weddings Unite Local People

Two weddings of interest to Farmington people occurred on Saturday, September 26.

Rosemary Dinkla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dinkla of Redford and David Seely, son of Mrs. Susie Seely, of Farmington, were united in marriage at the Farmington Methodist Church, at 3 o'clock service Saturday afternoon. Rev. Howard C. Dunching read the marriage service.

The bride wore a street length dress of dusty blue, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Anna Pettig attended her cousin as matron of honor, and she wore a street length dress of ball or blue. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums.

Robert Utley was David's best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dinkla wore a green crepe street dress with brown accessories, with a corsage of pink and rose baby chrysanthemums and rosebuds.

The groom's mother, Mrs. J. Seely, wore brown crepe with green accessories and her corsage was of pink chrysanthemums and rosebuds also.

The wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and the immediate families at Rosemont Hotel.

A reception was held in the evening for 125 friends and relatives at Glen Oaks Country Club.

After the first of October, Mr. and Mrs. Seely will be at home to their friends on Shiloh road.

Glidden-Paschke
At a service read in the parsonage of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Dorothy Paschke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paschke of Power Road, became the bride of Stanley Glidden, also of Farmington.

The bride wore a street length dress of ice blue velvet.

Margaret Janovich was the bride's only attendant and John Janovich was best man for Mr. Glidden.

The young couple will be at home to their friends in Dearborn after the first of October.

CLARENCEVILLE UNITED CHURCH BEGINS ACTIVITY

It seemed like a homecoming at the Clarenceville United Church last Sunday, with many familiar faces in the congregation.

Particularly welcome was Eddie Christmas, home on a 12 day furlough from his duties with the Coast Guard. An honor roll is being made, and soon will be ready, bearing the names of the 15 young men and the one young woman now in the service of our country.

New Testaments have been given to each of these young people.

A new class for teen-age boys will begin Sunday in the Sunday School.

The Ladies Aid are busy raising funds for the new building, and have launched their fall program of activity.

Two Luncheons Enjoyed During The Past Week

The Maccabees have held two potluck luncheons within the past week. One at the home of Mrs. Jessica Rousseau, 2241 East Avenue, on September 25 and Mrs. Timmons, of Randall Avenue, was hostess at the other on September 23.

There will be no luncheons for the next two weeks, due to busy preparations for the coming unit meeting.

Mrs. H. W. Smith and Mrs. Ray Fendt entertained at a baby shower for Mrs. Robert Joint Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Thomas, 20777 Randall Street, entertained Saturday evening in honor of the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Thomas's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Goodfellow. Twenty-five guests were present. Prizes were presented to the winners in Bunco and hymns were sung by the group accompanied by Mr. Goodfellow at the piano. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomas.

Bandage Unit Needs More Volunteer Help
