SIMPLY ASTOUNDING. Is the amount of metal tubes— tooth paste tubes, shaving cream tubes, ointment tubes and any other kind you might mention—that accumulated in a short while down at the Smith-Bradley Drug Co. Firad' stated that when he re-"Bnd" stated that when he re-cently turned in the tubes he had collected, he had about 200 pounds of them. You know and I know, that an empty tooth paste tube weighs well—just practically no-thing, so just figure out how many it would take to make 200 pounds. It sure looks like Farmington brushes its teeth every day, three times per day.
