There Will Be Christmas Music

Many Farmington people will feel a "lift" of the heart, if they are as fond of organ music as most of us, from the letter received at the Enterprise office this week...

"May I reply to the 'This' and 'That' column of last week. 'Yes, we are going to have Christmas music from the Church tower this year, and I am very happy to have had someone ask for it, or at least inquire about it."

"If anyone had favorite Christmas records which are not heard from our tower I would be very glad to have the record brought to the Church for use."

Mail Early For Christmas

The bulk of Christmas mail must be in the post offices by December 1 this year if deliveries on time are to be assured. Carl Goers and Vic Blakeslee report that everything is in readiness for the final distribution of "check up" scrap slips and Finance Chairman Ed Holter reports that expenses are being held to a minimum.

Unprecedented wartime demands on the postal and transportation systems, plus a prospective record volume of Christmas mailings, were cited by Mr. Purdum as necessitating earlier mailings than ever before.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a two-piece solid blue suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

In 1941, about 21,950 mail cars were required between December 12 and 24 to deliver Christmas mail—enough cars to make a train 270 miles long. This year, about 10,000 mail cars are being used by the armed services, and a severe shortage is in prospect.

The postal service usually borrows about 2,500 trucks from the Army and other Government agencies, and rents about 10,000 from private owners, to handle the Christmas mails. This year, it will be extremely difficult to obtain these vehicles to meet even a substantial part of the need.

Overalls are cooperating by railroads some hundreds of steel box cars and similar equipment for mail transportation, and Joseph B. Eastman, Director of Defense Transportation, has ordered that unnecessary travel be curtailed to the limit during the holiday season.

Mr. Purdum called attention to the task of the Post Office Department in moving millions of pieces of mail every day and to the fact that mail is not being sent from the world. This extraordinary job must be kept current, even while the holiday rush of the post office is handled.

Have you been dragged into discussion lately of just what and when is the proper time to fly the American flag? If you have not, you are one of the few people in Farmington who can say so, for the subject has been continually cropping up...

Have you thought about it seriously? Have you ever realized how many of us have thought such-and-such without actually doing any thinking at all?

Let's all consider to whom the American Flag belongs. Doesn't it really belong to every Mr. and Mrs. American Citizen, to use and display it whenever they choose to do so, properly and reverently, of course?

The flag is the symbol of a great faith in a certain form of government. Undoubtedly the flag of a Flag, even at night, has meant courage, hope, and firm resolution to millions of people per-

There will be no community tree this year, due to restrictions concerning outside lighting, but a community party for the children will be held at the Civic Theatre, in addition to the usual goods, and what will be on Tuesday or Wednesday after Christmas.

For Wednesday's program Dr. Joseph Norton gave a very interesting talk, and the Exchange Quartet became a quartet for the occasion with Dr. Aschenbrenner, Lloyd Gullen, Doc Grosvenor, Jack Voss and Floyd Nichols doing the singing, Howard Busching at the piano. Charles Kowalski was again winner of the Pot of Gold.

Let The American Flag Fly!

Have you been dragged into discussion lately of just what and when is the proper time to fly the American flag? If you have not, you are one of the few people in Farmington who can say so, for the subject has been continually cropping up...

Let's all consider to whom the American Flag belongs. Doesn't it really belong to every Mr. and Mrs. American Citizen, to use and display it whenever they choose to do so, properly and reverently, of course?

Right at this time, when we are engaged in a war for sheer survival, why shouldn't flying the flag at night over a munitions plant, for instance, be a virtual must?

Bond School May Have Bible Instruction

If enough parents are interested, a Bible class for children in the Bond School district will soon start. The class would be open to all children eight years old and over, and would be under the direction of a Farmington pastor.

Those interested in enrollment may telephone Farmington 806-J5.

Extra War Bonds Will Finance A $300,000 Plane

Citizens of Farmington are asked to cooperate with all of Oakland County, and arrange for Uncle Sam—and the boys of the United States Air Corps—a deluxe Christmas gift—a $300,000 bomber with which to blast the Axis.

A united effort on the part of residents in all cities, towns, villages and townships of the county will open December 1 and continue through December 24 to raise a big four motor bomber. If the money to pay for such a ship is raised by sale of extra stamps and bonds, in addition to regular payroll deductions, the federal government will agree to properly inscribe the bomber as a gift from the people of Oakland County.

In this way men and women and boys and girls at home can play a specific part in fighting the enemy. Their extra purchase of stamps and bonds will not go to merely help the war effort in a general way. Instead their money will be applied to purchases of a specific fighting craft.

School children in the county will cooperate and will be urged to complete and partially fill stamp books at once. All purchases of stamps and bonds in the county, apply toward the bomber, except that the purchases must be in addition to the regular bond purchases being made by payroll deductions.

Stamp books and bond applications, with bomber stickers, will be credited to the Oakland County bomber fund when presented at any bank or post office in the county. Ask for a "bomber sticker" when buying bonds this month. Joseph Himmelscheug, executive chairman, and Y. R. Blakeslee, retail chairman for Farmington, urge everyone to get behind our bomber campaign.

Buy extra bonds now—get your stamps books out of their hiding places and fill them up for Uncle Sam. Remember Pearl Harbor and let's all hurl a big new four motor bomber into battle—the spirit of Oakland County, Michigan.
