Many thanks go to Lee Tyler for the beautiful painting he presented to the Sunday School. It portrays the Christ Child in the Temple at the age of twelve.

The flowers on the Altar on Sunday, November 22, were, placed there by Mr. and Mrs. Jamcs
Lillie in memory of their son. Jav Desn, who passed away a year ago.

The 1942 Christmas seal features a red barn. Tuberculosis authorities figure that the fine ac compilahment in the control of brine tuberculosis has made the barn safer from tuberculosis than the home.

In Michigan, 84 million red barns will go on sale November 23—but the venture is public health, not real estate. The barns are those artist Dale Nichols painted on the 1942 Christmas seal.
