EDUCATIONAL FILMS ARRIVE AT FORT CUSTER

"Prelude to War" the first of a series of educational films designed to acquaint personnel of the Army with the background of the present war, the history of the war to date, the current progress of the war, and information on our allies and enemies, has been shown to Fort Custer soldiers this week.

Titles of the first seven films in the series, which is being made by the Special Services Division of the Services of Supply, have been announced. Following "Prelude to War" this week, Custer men will see: "The Nazis Strike," "Divide and Conquer," "The Battle of Britain," "The Battle of Russia," "The Battle of China," and "War Comes to America."

"Shuffle Along," first of the winter series of USO Camp Shows will be scheduled for Fort Custer will play two performances in Theatre No. 1 on Wednesday, December

9. The musical show, which was a Broadway favorite 24 years ago, is being revived with some of its original cast for men in service.

Three of the four original producers of "Shuffle Along" are connected with its production today. Twenty-four years ago they (Noble Sissle, Eddie Blake, and Flournoy Miller) wrote, staged, produced and acted in Broadway's first all-Negro comedy.

Sissle is now a member of the USO Camp Shows Board, representing Negro talent, while Miller and Blake are playing their original parts in the revived musical comedy. Blake is in the pit with his nine-piece band, and Miller plays Steve Jenkins, one of the lead roles.
