GREETINGS FROM OUR SOLDIERS

We who are "the folks at home" to the young men from the City and Township of Farmington now serving in the armed forces of the United States, are always cheered by a letter from them. Particularly it is true at the Christmas season, and it is with this in mind that we reprint in these columns several letters received by the Blue Star Mothers of America. The letters were written in response to the gift boxes which the Blue Star Mothers packed and sent to these boys.

To Blue Star Mothers:

I was very much pleased with the Christmas box that you sent. It's certainly a good feeling to know that the folks from your home town are thinking of you. I have been keeping up to date with the Farmington news, thanks to the Farmington Enterprise.

I am leaving Camp Wheeler very shortly, but there's one thing about the Camp I won't forget and that's the long hikes and trips through the swamps.

I find the southern food better than I expected. Anyway I have certainly gained a lot of weight. There's one food they don't serve us northern boys and that's grins. If they did, it would just be a waste, because that's one thing that most of us northerners don't like. For the last two weeks I haven't had any butter, but I suppose we will have to go without a lot of things before very long.

In closing, I wish to thank you again for your kindness in sending the Christmas box.

Sincerely yours,
Private Orville Robertson.

Dear Mothers:
I received your package and I was greatly pleased to hear from your club. I surely appreciate your thoughtfulness.

I truly have great hopes for all organizations of your kind and I hope it will grow to be a great one.

It is impossible for me to express my feeling toward your little club. You are making many of the boys in the service much less lonesome.

Thank you again.
Sincerely,

Private Dale Rozenboom.

Dear Mothers:

I received your package Friday and I can't tell you how much I appreciate your kindness. Mother was telling me about your organization and I think it is a wonderful idea.

Most of the boys here have been receiving packages from similar clubs from their home town, and it makes them all feel proud to
