The Golden Text (Ps. 118:124)
"I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all of his people."

These Bible citations in this passage (Psalm 124): "Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (10:10): "Prayer means that we desire to walk and will walk in the light so far as we receive it, even though with bleeding feet, and that waiting patiently on the Lord, we will leave our real desires to be rewarded by Him."

Let us pledge our individual effort to any activity which will hasten the completion of our task. Only through unity of purpose and action can we hope to achieve Victory.

HOARDING HELPS HITLER

By Gene Alleman

"I'm not a pessimist by nature, but Claude Wickard's radio announcement about a coming food shortage was a historic understatement of fact."

Coming from E. L. Anthony, dean of agriculture for Michigan State College, these plain words carry weight for Anthony knows his stuff. He is Michigan's outstanding authority in the field of agriculture.

"It was" just two weeks ago that Secretary Wickard conferred with a number of agricultural leaders at Chicago. He put his cards on the table for us, and he talked plain turkey. The facts as he presented them to us are a lot worse than he has given to the public. I suppose the rest of the news will come gradually."

Here is the picture as Dean Anthony sees it.
Mother Nature was mighty good to Michigan farms in 1942. Blessed by favorable weather, the land yielded crops. This production aroused from the land a degree of soil fertility which cannot be replaced by available commercial fertilizers. Nitrogen fertilizers are hard to get.

Despite the possibility that the 1943 growing season may be less favorable, Uncle Sam is counting on Michigan farmers to grow more food.
More food with less labor, too.
And so more farm machinery either.

Uncle Sam is pledged, by circumstances more than anything else, to feed millions of people in England and Russia and Africa, all in addition to the hungry men in

Looking Back Through The Enterprise Files

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO (Friday, January 11, 1918)

Old School House Burned to Ground
About 5:45 Thursday morning fire was discovered in the old school house by the janitor who was on his way to start the fires for the day. The alarm was turned in, but by the time the department arrived on the scene the whole building was ablaze and nothing could be done to save it. The building, which was brick, was erected in the fall of 1888, and was considered at that time an up-to-date school house. The origin of the fire is not known, the janitor, Herman Nichols and Theron Pauline declaring that everything was in good condition when they left Wednesday evening.

Head of County Red Cross
F. M. Warner, of this village was chosen as president of the Oak-land County Red Cross last week, in place of C. B. Wilson of Pontiac, who resigned on account of pressure of other business.

The Patriotic Red Cross Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Harrison Johnson last Friday.
They made complete, 26 arm slings and one pair of pajamas.

TEN YEARS AGO (Thursday, January 5, 1933)

Welfare Begins
Farmington Township's handling of its own welfare work is under way this week, with organization apparently working quite smoothly. Appointment of Clyde Seelye of 14 Mile Road as an investigator and to assist in other work was made a few days ago.

Co-Operative Plan Meets Difficulty
The plan of co-ordinated police work in Farmington and the Town-ship apparently has struck a snag during the past week, and it is thought likely now that the suggested co-operative effort will not be undertaken. Dissatisfaction in some quarters with what has been done thus far and what has been proposed appears likely to prevent any agreement on the matter.

Needy Children Receiving School Lunches
Twenty needy children are being served lunches during the noon hour at the Farmington School by Mrs. Arthur Lamb and Mrs. Norman Lett. Serving of the lunches began last Tuesday.

FIVE YEARS AGO (Thursday, January 6, 1938)

One of Three Old Time Stores Burned
One of the three old-time wooden store buildings on the north side of Grand River that have for years had repeated escapes from destruc-tion by fire, now seems definitely doomed. Following a blaze which burned the back part of the roof in the store that was occupied by Iledberg's Electric Shop, it appears that the structure will not be worth repairing.

Cut-Off Station Entered Again
Another of the long series of forcible entries into the gasoline sta-tion at 4 corners of Grand River and the Cut-Off is before the police for ac-tion, following the latest burglary which occurred Saturday night. About $50 worth of cigarettes, accessories and other merchandise was stolen.

Living Religion

Rev. Howard Eusching

CHURCH AND CONGRESS—Sunday ski trains in all parts of the country. Since the beginning of the war a number of Mop-ers have come to the local ministers have protested the week-religious scene. Senator Josh Lee, end exit of some twenty thousand is an ordained Baptist minister. He people out of Montreal on the ski trains.

BLACKOUTS IN SCOTLAND
CREATE NEW KIND OF CHURCH SERVICE—It is impos-sible in many churches to meet the blackout regulations in the evening service. So a more informal type of service is being held in many places in Scotland, in church halls. They are having talks on special religious subjects, followed by group discussion. People certainly listen better to a sermon when they know they are going to have an opportunity themselves of dis-cussing it afterward, so the re-port says—"The writer of this en-umn wonders about that. What do you think? Write and tell me."

MORE THAN TOLERANCE—Accepting a silver medal recently for his "promotion of better un-derstanding between Christians and Jews in America," Wendell I. Willkie deplored the use of the word "tolerance" in connection with the treatment of one group by another in this country. He stressed that "it is not tolerance that one is entitled to in America; it is the right of every citizen in America to be treated by every other citizen as an equal."

NED—News comes from Montreal that the Transport controller has announced the banning of special
