

THE BLUE AND WHITE

FARMINGTON HANDS DEFEAT TO KEEGO HARBOR

In what started out to be a close contest, Farmington came back to defeat Keego quite handsly, 33-16. The first quarter was played with little scoring, Farmington had the lead 3-2 in the second quarter. F.H.S. added 9 points and led 12-3. The first half was a rough and tough one.

Going into the second half, Farmington knocked home 5 buckets, while holding Keego to just one foul shot. The score stood 22-10. From here on, it was easy going. In the last quarter Farmington denied Keego's defense for 11 more points to her 5. Final score, 33-16.

Eleven members were used by F.H.S. and all played with the same idea. That, to defeat Keego Harbor. Captain Dick Pauline, switched from forward to guard, rang up six buckets and one foul shot for 13 points. The overcapacity crowd cheered several times for the second team men who were moved up the past week by their first team. They were Allen Dunckel and Rennie Bacon. Both were called on to save the second team, and Dunckel's 2 baskets in last minutes of play were the winning margin.

Farmington's scoring came about by 14 baskets and 4 foul shots for 33 points. Keego was held to 6 baskets and 3 foul shots for 16.

This week Walled Lake visits F.H.S. Walled Lake won the first match 32-23.

NEW EQUIPMENT ADDED FOR PRE-FLIGHT WORK

An Air Age map, showing all the air routes of the world, and also a Radio Code Kit have been added to the pre-flight training course. The Radio Code Kit was made available by The Army Institute. This basic radio code course is designed to teach the student to receive messages by International Morse Code up to a speed of 10 words per minute.

Clothing Clinic Opens For High School Girls

Unique and different in its originality is the Clothing Clinic which the Homemaking girls are sponsoring the week of February 22-28. It offers the opportunity of guidance to girls who wish to improve their outward appearance along the clothing line. Color scheme, style, and cost are but a few things analyzed and interpreted for every individual interest. Even to those of us who think we know exactly what to wear, it presents a chance to learn more about being well groomed.

Pep Meeting Sharpens School Spirit

The high school students were interested Friday afternoon in the pep meeting concerning the game that night.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Published by the Journalism Class of Farmington High School through the offices of the Farmington Enterprise.

Managing Editor: Clara Billing. Editor: Clara Billing. Editor: Clara Billing. Editor: Clara Billing.

Editorial: Oh! Where, Oh! where can we go for some refreshments after a basketball game, dance, or other school function? All places are closed up.

WHERE? ... Oh! Where, Oh! where can we go for some refreshments after a basketball game, dance, or other school function? All places are closed up.

How about it—Isn't there any one who will accommodate us students? —Alfred Walkbank.

P.S. This isn't crabbing—just wondering.

SECOND TEAM TAKES FIFTH STRAIGHT GAME

Farmington second team won another one Friday night as they defeated the visiting Keego Harbor team by a 35-24 count. The way the game started out it looked like a runaway for Farmington as the team collected 10 points before Keego Harbor could break the ice, Farmington collected 12 points in the first quarter and held Keego Harbor to 3 points, all of which came off free shots.

'TIS SAID . . .

My, My—what certain tall lanky Junior is having such a good hair day. It just seems that instead of turning blonde this time, it is a dark red. Well, if you first don't succeed, try, try again.

Timely Books To Arrive Soon

New books have been ordered for the library. Some are non-fiction and others are fiction. These will be placed on the shelves within the next few weeks.

GREAT AMERICANS

A good American was Abraham Lincoln. A good American was he; He fought for his freedom, His people, his country; He fought for you and me.

He Died— But Not In Vain

The Detroit News recently published an article in its paper regarding a young man, Pvt. William Charles Berman, who was killed on the far-flung battlefields of New Guinea.

AROUND THE GRADES

The third graders are studying the reasons for rationing and shortages of certain items. They have already studied coffee and tea and are now studying fish and other sea food.

Senior Swing Is A Big Success

Everyone knows about the good time that was had by all who attended the Senior Dance Saturday night, February 10, from 8 to 12 p.m.

THUMBNAIL BIOGRAPHERS

Harold Childress—age 17. Pet saying—"Are you kiddin'?" Activities—Track, Ambition—Navy pilot.

Timely Books To Arrive Soon

New books have been ordered for the library. Some are non-fiction and others are fiction. These will be placed on the shelves within the next few weeks.

WEST POINT PARK Mrs. William Zwahlen

Little Jimmy Mull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mull, 3549 Gresham Avenue is almost well again, after nearly having pneumonia.

The Buckingham family, corner Norfolk and Mayfield, spent the weekend with relatives in North-ern Michigan.

Mrs. Charles Haas, of Hubbard Avenue is recovering from a severe attack of throat trouble.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Dolores Jean, were visitors in Detroit Monday evening.

Legal Notices

MILLER, BALDWIN and BOOSE, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, 2156 FRENCH ROAD, DETROIT, MICHIGAN. NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION. In a session of said Court held in the Court House in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, this 27th day of January, A.D. 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

Town One (1), Range Eleven (11) East, City of Royal Oak, Oakland County, Michigan, according to the plat thereof recorded on July 29, 1916, in Liber 16 of Records.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

By Walter J. L. Ray, Its Secretary. Dated January 28, 1942.

How to make your ELECTRIC CORDS last longer

DON'T yank cord from wall like this. Grasp plug and pull firmly

DON'T drive nail or tack through cord

DON'T run heavy furniture over cord

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Mud is one of the bad features of spring, but when you get a combination of children AND mud—that's enough to try the patience of a saint—which I ain't.

What a dog we have—you have to speak very gently to her at all times, or she becomes offended and won't look at us for hours.

I'm scared to death my tulips will poke their noses up for a whiff of this invigorating air, only to get them severely frozen a little later on.

Every member of the family should invest in America's future. Make cents at least 10 percent of the family's total income is pledged to the Treasury no later than New Year's Day.