

American Legion

Notes

By F. W. Lowrie

The next regular meeting of Groves-Walker Post, The American Legion, will be held Thursday, April 15.

Wednesday, April 21, the Forty and Eight will hold their regular meeting in the Groves-Walker Post Home. All members of the Volute $11 are requested to be in attendance. Visitors from other Volumes are welcome.

A very nice letter was received by the Commander of the Post from the Commander of the Post from Santa Capita, and he stated that he would welcome visitors from the Post. He is at the Dearborn Veterans Hospital. He thanked the Ladies Auxiliary for their gift.

Forty former residents of Michigan were graduated April 9, 1943, at Keesler Field's B-24 Liberator Mechanics School at Biloxi, Mississippi. Included among the graduates at all whom hold the grade of private first class, is Lytle Edward Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook, 21831 Power Road.

Burke Martin, a member of the Junior Class of Farmington High School, left Friday for Great Lakes, Illinois, for Navy training.

My husband and I have been wanting to write you how much we enjoy the Enterprise. He gets it in Camp and brings it home, and we always enjoy reading it together. So, once again, many thanks for sending it to us.

Sincerely,
Arlene and Ralph Derrill
Camp Beale, California

Irvin, Gen. Albert L. Sneed.

Upon completion of their training in Chicago, students may be assigned to the communications section of an Air Forces Ground Unit, in a combat zone, or after further training as aerial gunners, will become radio operators in bomber crews.

Private Jack Simpson has been moved to Camp Rucker, Alabama.

Private Ray Setter of Clarenceville is stationed at Camp Butler, North Carolina.

News has been received by the friends of William Longfellow in Clarenceville and who is now serving in the armed forces overseas.

That he and Private Ralph Houtz, who is with the U.S. Marines, have met in the Solomon Islands and enjoyed a grand visit about the home folks.

Private Thomas Schleber of Red Bank, New Jersey, has received his medal in marksmanship on the rifle range.

WEST POINT PARK

Mrs. William Zwahlen

The Neighborhood Bible School is planning its special program for Easter Sunday. Upon this occasion there will also be a brief memorial service in honor of little Eddie Johnson, who was a loyal member of the Sunday School he loved.

Because leaders of the group were unable to be in attendance, the Boys and Girls Christian Victory Club was excused from its usual study Friday night. However, they will meet this Friday night and the subject under discussion will be "Life's Plot."

Among those out-of-towners present at the funeral of Eddie Johnson were Mr. and Mrs. Ned Norden of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. John Timmer of Muskegon and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Byers of Lansing, all of whom were aunts and uncles of the little boy.

Johnson Purser, another uncle from New London, Ohio, was also present. Cousins were Mrs. Thomas Stevens, Mrs. Ruth Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens, all of Akron and Uniontown, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods and children, near the Treadwell School, visited friends in the Folker subdivision Sunday evening.

Sergeant Forrest E. Ault was home twenty-four hour leave, owing to the death of his nephew, Edwin Johnson, Junior. Forrest is a meteorologist now stationed in Grand Rapids.
