COMEDY SUCCESS CONTINUES AT WILSON THEATRE

With capacity houses at each performance, Henry Duffy's "Merry-Go-Rounders" at the Wilson Theatre is proving the comedy success of the year. This hilarious entertainment which includes the talents of twelve Broadway and Hollywood stars and includes a company of thirty artists is now in its fourth week at the same moderate prices that designate Henry Duffy's policy. There are performances every evening at 8:30, bargain matinees on Saturday and Sunday at 2:30, an extra midnight show for war workers on Saturday night, starting at 11:30 and three shows on Sunday at 2:30, 5:30 and 8:30. School children are admitted to the orchestra seats for half price at the Saturday matinee.
