Mother'll Understand

If you don't call her on Long Distance this Sunday

Mothers are understanding and patriotic.
They know that under the steadily increasing burden of war-created calls, long distance telephone equipment is seriously overloaded.
Of course, they like to be remembered on Mother's Day, but they'd rather be sure the lines are kept clear for vital war messages.
This year, send your love in a letter. And if you'd like to give your mother a present, she will truly appreciate a U. S. War Bond—a gift of fighting dollars to back our boys overseas.

Don't make any long distance call this Mother's Day unless it is extremely urgent.

When lusty knights fought armored war
Beer was the cheer they clamored for.

The brewer then was not alert
To close the vats to dust and dirt.

If flavor was a little flat
He thought no less of it for that.

He knew but little brewing science
For rule-of-thumb was his reliance.

But as the centuries slowly ran
We found a better brewing plan:

Here in Michigan, one happy morn
The really modern beer was born.

In Altes—sealed from first to last—
A brewing milestone had been passed!

For Altes is Dame Nature's brew;
All clean and pure, it comes to you!

Pour a glassful—test the flavor—
That's the taste that thousands favor!

ALTES
Lager

...AGED-IN SEALED-IN FLAVOR!

In Altes Lager you get all the natural goodness of pure ingredients, unchanged by exposure to air, dust or odors. Every drop of Altes is made in hermetically-sealed, instead of open, vats—by an exclusive process that seals the goodness in and keeps impurities out. So remember—only Altes gives you that delicious aged-in, sealed-in flavor. No other beer can offer you so much.
