CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
New High School Auditorium
Farmington

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 23.

The Golden Text (1st Cor. 2:13) is: "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Matt. 6:33): "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.228): "If we follow the command of our Master, 'Take no thought for your life,' we shall never depend on bodily conditions, structure, or economy, but we shall be masters of the body, dictate its terms, and form and control it with Truth."

Sugar Allowed For Canning. Sugar for home canning will be limited to one pound for each four quarts (or eight pounds of the finished product) and may be secured on written application to the housewife's legal board. Each person is allowed not more than 25 pounds. Any family can apply for sugar to put up jams, jellies, and preserves at the rate of five pounds per person. Last year, sugar for preserves was limited to one pound per person.

Overseas Parcel Post. Packages may now be mailed to a soldier overseas if a request is received from the soldier and the envelope bears the AFPO cancel. The mark is presented at the time of mailing. Formerly, the approval of the commanding officer was required. Current restrictions as to weight and size of packages remain in effect.

Eight Potato Black Market. OPA investigators are being sent into major shipping centers of the early crop of white potatoes, and into approximately 50 of the country's principal terminal market areas in an effort to prevent black market practices. Maximum prices for country shippers of early crop potatoes in the south and southwest range from $2.40 to $2.60.

Looking Back Through The Enterprise Files

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO (May 24, 1918)

Over The Top Again
The starting of the Red Cross drive for Oakland County's quota of $160,000, Farmington Township's share of which is $6,000, was a huge success. 100 subscriptions amounting to $1,600 were cheerfully and voluntarily turned in to the committee, and from this start Farmington Township went "over the top" in a rush.

Plan Benefit Social
The Willing Helpers of the Evangelical Church will serve ice cream and cake at the Town Hall park Decoration Day, both afternoon and evening. The proceeds are to be used to get material for the Little War orphans and make up same, and also, if possible, to get a sewing machine for the Red Cross workshop.

Storm Causes Damage
Most of the county papers tell of much damage to all sections of the county by last Friday's severe storm. Trees, silos, chimneys blown down, with the unroofing of houses and barns are reported from many sections.

TEN YEARS AGO (May 25, 1933)

Plan 20 Percent Assessment Cut
Conforming to the trend shown in other sections of Oakland County, Farmington Township and City property valuations are likely to be greatly reduced for the coming year. Assessing officers of both units are contemplating important reductions in assessments on which they are now working preparatory to hearings of the board of review ten days hence.

Ask Board To Furnish Seed
Strong sentiment in favor of a combined plan of both private gardeners and a welfare farm to meet a possible food shortage was expressed at a meeting Monday night of Farmington Township taxpayers and welfare families. Two conflicting plans—the cultivation of private gardens by welfare families or of a large Township garden, as in the past—were reconciled in the minds of the audience, which voted for the adoption of both.

Citizens Accord Budget Approval
Farmington city's proposed budget for 1933-34, which cuts city operating expenses one-third, called forth virtually no criticism at the public hearing Wednesday night. Only two changes were asked, and those were of a minor nature.

FIVE YEARS AGO (May 19, 1938)

School Recovers Stolen Goods
Arrested on a charge of breaking into and entering the Clarenceville High School on the morning of May 9 two youths are in the County Jail awaiting sentence. Three typewriters have not been located as yet, but other items have been returned to the school.

Legion To Hold Memorial Rites
America's war dead will be paid their annual tribute by Farmington's Veterans of War Post of the American Legion conduct their Memorial services at Oakwood Cemetery.

Township To Seek WPA Projects
Farmington Township Board meeting at their regular Tuesday evening meeting authorized the Supervisor and Township Clerk to take initial steps preparatory to the submission of proposed WPA or PWPA projects. The principal project under consideration was the proposed Township Hall.

mos to newspaper editors. Colonel Dupuy and his staff replied that Congress would accuse the military of seeking to influence the press. We were reminded that the United States is a democracy.

And yet the readers of Michigan newspapers are getting today the most complete coverage of war news in the history of world journalism.

Correspondents of the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service, as well as writers of leading newspapers, are accorded every facility by the American government to obtain and transmit information. Of all the nations of the world, we permit a voluntary censorship. And it is still possible for editors to criticize freely.

Hanson W. Baldwin, military commentator of the New York Times and Pulitzer winner for his brilliant analyses, has just returned from a 22,000-mile trip to Africa to report—without censorship—that the Allied victory in relations.

The army colonel referred to the presence of only four American army divisions on the Tunisian front and the snap judgment of many Americans on the home front that the war will be over soon. He admitted—and so did we—the difficulty of getting true perspective of military values through a condensed newspaper headline.

The resiliant conversation veered to the idea of having the war department issue confidential memos.

As Colonel Dupuy phrased it in a radio talk May 9, "we are one step forward on the long march to victory." But it is only one step. American troops have yet to land on the continent of Europe.

We Americans like to gossip. Probably not one of you has not

Are You Willing?

Then follow directions of your government.

If the Axis win, you will be obeying orders given by some one you will not care to obey, but you will have no choice. Your government asks you to prove that free people can follow directions.

Follow directions. If we fail in this, the war will drag on. As we succeed, we shall sooner have peace.

Follow directions. When your government asks you to conserve food, do so. You cannot afford to eat what your country needs. A little sacrifice now on your part may save the life of a boy fighting for you—perhaps one very dear to you.

When your government asks you to "dig down" and produce a part of your weekly pay roll, follow directions, even to the point of sacrifice, for the money must come, either voluntarily or by direct taxation. And remember, you are not asked to give your money, but only to lend it, and representing a good business transaction for you, at that. The lending of a portion of your income is small repayment for all your government has done for you—to say nothing of how much your money will do to hasten the end of this war.

Follow directions. When the salvage committee asks that you save waste kitchen fats, that you salvage all scrap iron and heavy metals, that you prepare and save your tin cans, and that you women salvage all silk and nylon hosiery, they are not asking that you do so, just to give you something else to do. There is much more sound logic behind it than that. They are asking you to cooperate in these salvage campaigns because these waste materials, which would be discarded in peace times, are needed to produce more and more weapons with which to carry on the war. They go into making essential war materials.

By following directions you are helping to shorten the time that our boys must face the guns of the Axis.

Do you wish to see peace and prosperity again established? Then follow directions. It is so little to ask when so much is at stake.

Victory Gardens

The Victory gardens of America can accomplish much in terms of food and saving of transportation space, facilities and labor. But, more than that, if 10,000,000 men and women, boys and girls who have heretofore known little or nothing of the rewards which come to them who love to delve in the soil have gardens this season, many will come to know a fascinating hobby.

Gardening is a way of life and an attitude toward it. It's the feel of moist, cool soil in a man's hand and the feel of warm sun on his face. It's the miracle of a new season, and friendly, fat robins hopping over the dark earth.

It's raking and smoothing the plot, getting ready for the planting, with one's feet in soft mellowness. It's pulling the string taut for straight lines and making a drill with the end of the rake. And then as one plants the dry seeds, there is joy in his heart as he thinks ahead to the time of bloom and fruition, so great is the wonder of the eternal promise of seed time and harvest.

There is melody in the bright sun and the warm rain, in peaceful gray clouds and star-close nights. He who can hear harmony knows that in the harsh cacophony of a distraught era, the theme of eternal rightness is not lost. Gardening is growing fruits and flowers—yes, but it is also a link between a man and the verities.

Why pay thousands of civilians to audit ALL Army, Navy and Maritime Commission war contracts when the profits of 95% do not exceed a fair 2% after taxes—and when the Internal Revenue department automatically sifts out the excess-profit contracts while computing income taxes?

Only 5% of war profits are found to be over 2% after taxes. There are the ones to examine—and Uncle Sam already has people to detect violations without hiring an army of extra employees to audit ALL contracts.
