AT THE WILSON

WARREN WILLIAM

Another Hollywood actor induced by Henry Duffy to return to the stage after a long absence is Warren William, who in Violet Heming's visa-via in a revival of John van Druten's four-character comedy, "There's Always Juliet."

Miss Heming was last here in "Night Must Fall" and Mr. William's most recent visit is not disclosed in the records, but his disclosure, of course, has been visible on our screens on many famous occasions.

"There's Always Juliet" is a charming little play and an especially good one for the wartime, for it tells the tale of a pure love affair between an American and an English lady, all pursued in a London flat in a time that is emphatically not the present.

Mr. Duffy announces that the engagement will be one limited to four weeks, because of other bookings at the Wilson.

RADIO PROGRAMS GIVE HELP TO GARDENERS

On Tuesday at 10:45, Thursday at 10:45 and Saturday at 10:45, time is given to the committee, and programs deal on various phases of Victory Gardening. This week Saturday the topic is "Insects Now in the Victory Garden."

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller and Mr. William Voss of Lansing were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Clappison.

Camp Pickett, Virginia May 29, 1943

Dear Friends:
Well this is the first letter I have written to you in quite some time.

I am a tractor and trailer driver here for the Quarter Master Detachment. I have been stationed here for about eight months. The Camp is about eighteen months old, so one can imagine, it is just coming into shape. Where there is now new yellow sand before, there is now nice green grass.

At this time I would like to thank everyone for their nice letters I have received, and also for the weekly issue of the Enterprise and the Blue Star Mothers for their nice boxes I have received in the past.

I hope everyone is fine, as I myself cannot complain.

Pfc Richard G. Schulkins.

Clifford E. Waack, a resident of Farmington and now a seaman, second class in the United States Navy, recently reported to the Submarine Chaser Training Center at Miami, Florida, the only service school of its kind in the country. Seaman Waack was born and raised in Farmington, and his grandmothers live here at the present time.

He joined the Navy last January and completed his "boot training" at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station before reporting in Miami on April 4. Congaree Air Base Columbia, South Carolina

Dear Sir:
I have been receiving the Farmington Enterprise for quite some time, and ask you to keep up your time. I haven't written to you good work. You keep us happy.

sooner because of my broken thumb. I read through the paper and found that George Mynatt is stationed somewhere in South Carolina. I haven't as yet met anyone from Farmington, but I was sure I'd find George. The other day we went through the gas chamber. When you hear of gas, some people don't realize what it is all about. I went through three times since I have been in the Army. Each time I was sure I'd find George. The guard squad, which I don't care for much, I have been on for 1 1/2 months.

The thumb is a little better but it is still in a splint. I am sure thankful to you for sending me the Enterprise. It helps me keep up on the news from home. Thanks again and so long.

Sincerely,
Pvt. Herbert S. Barnum.

Private Calvin Hopkins has returned to his home in Texas after spending a 15 day tour with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins on Lakeway.

Fort Monmouth, New Jersey

Dear Blue Star Mothers:

Thank you very much for the Easter box. My "Thank you" note is somewhat late, but because when the package came, I was right in the middle of a very strenuous training course with no time even to write letters. I was living in a barracks with 27 other men and needless to say, the box was a community affair and everyone enjoyed it.

You are doing a wonderful job for the folks in the Armed Forces and you will probably never know how much good you are doing because words don't express it very well. I know, in my case, it was wonderful to receive the package at mail-call after a tough day and the time to open it up in a bunk and have everyone gather around for a sample. When you consider that the men with me were all other men and if you could see how they enjoy things like that, then you might realize what it means to the younger boys and men in the service to receive the packages and cards that you send them. It's like being adopted by a whole group of mothers and it spreads further than you realize.

Besides sincere thanks from me, you also receive thanks from Lt. Lewis of Pennsylvania, Lt. Grenader of Texas, Lt. Savage of Boston, Lt. Metcalfe of Iowa and Lt. Yeager of Seattle. All of them had their share.

Best of luck to all of you and God bless you.

Sincerely,
Lt. Gustave Rozenboom.

April 23, 1943

Dear Mothers:
I tell all the boys enjoyed their Easter packages as much as I'm enjoying mine, your respective mailboxes are going to be chock-full of thank you messages for the next few days of work.

Writing down a thank you does not seem to have the backing of personal one has, but inasmuch as I can't personally speak a thank you, here it is on paper with my most sincere gratitude.

You know, if there were more people in this world working to make people happy as you are, there would be no necessity for all this world trouble. We could all be home and together again.

Again I thank you with all my heart, and ask you to keep up your time. I haven't written to you good work. You keep us happy.

Sincerely,
Lt. Gustave Rozenboom.

Sincerely,
Pfc Henry A. Dawson,

Portland, Maine May 4, 1943

Dear Blue Star Mothers:

I received your Easter box some time ago and enjoyed it very much, especially the home made cookies. After eating a few of the cakes, I started thinking that I was home, taking cookies out of my mom's cookie jar when she wasn't looking.

I know I should have written this note before this and thanked you, but I imagine you know how things are, if it's not one thing, it's another.

So before weighing anchor, I wish to thank each and every one of you for the Easter box, and for being so thoughtful in helping to keep a sailor's spirits riding high. I feel sure that the kids who he says, that his best girl friend is his Mother.

Sincerely yours,
Bob Verschlin.

Greenwater, Florida

Dear Blue Star Mothers:

I received your most welcome package about an hour ago. It contained everything to please a soldier's heart. Especially I might add as it was the first mail I had received since coming to Florida. It is grand down here. We are stationed on the Gulf of Mexico in one of the largest Resort Hotels in the state.

We have beautiful lawns, drill fields and good wholesome recreation facilities. I sincerely hope everyone of the Blue Star Mothers will accept my sincere thanks. Again Thanks very much. I know none of the boys will ever forget you and your work.

God bless you,
Pvt. E. K. "Ken" Wilkinson

Dear Sir:

I have been receiving the Enterprise every week, which Charlie Sullivan has been receiving. But since he has left school here at Fort Knox and has returned to Louisiana to our original outfit, so here I am without an Enterprise to read each week. I won't be returning to Louisiana for some time yet, and I would like very much to have the Enterprise sent to me.

It is sure as well to read the news of the folks at home and also the interesting news from the Farmington fellows who are all over the world now.

I haven't lived in Farmington since I graduated from school, but I do know a lot of well people in Farmington and their news is of interest to me.

I met an old employee of the paper here at Fort Knox a couple of weeks ago. He is now Lt. Roy Erdmann, and he sure makes a fine officer.

Well, I must close, and if it is possible for me to receive the Enterprise, I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,
Dick Davidson

Fort Bliss, Texas

To the Blue Star Mothers:

I am writing a few lines to thank you and all the lovely boys which I received from your organization.

I was very happy to receive it and makes a fellow in the Armed Forces realize that the folks back home remember him even though he may be far away from home and those that he dearly loves.

To know that you are remembered really brings up a fellow's morale and keeps him trying harder than ever.

So thanking you again, I remain,
Sincerely yours,
Private Walter J. Durham, Jr.

San Angelo, Texas

Dear Blue Star Mothers:

Just a little letter to let you know I got your very nice box. I am not much of a writer so all I will say is: God bless you all and keep you in good health. May all your sons be as happy as I am.

Pvt. Orville W. Mynatt, Jr.

Greenville, Pennsylvania

Dear Blue Star Mothers:

I received the package you sent to me tonight! I wish I could put in words how much I appreciate it. We get lots to eat here in the Army and we can buy candy bars here for only 3 cents each, while I know back home you are going without them. But to me a box of candy and some "goodies" with home are worth lots more.

These boxes you send to us fellows remind us that no matter where in this world we are sent or what our mission may be, our mothers are spiritually right along beside us.

Thanks again, mothers. May God see fit to soon have us all safe home again with you.

One of your sons,
Private F. Henry Mahaney.
