

2 Livonians Will Call

Leading square dance callers from the metropolitan area will be featured at a benefit square-round dance from 2 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 26, in the Southfield Civic Center, 10 1/2 Mile at Evergreen.

Prominent callers will include Ed Henson and Bev Tallman of Livonia, Ted Gevertik, Vern Smith and Pete Noll of Dearborn; John Korwin of Detroit, Bruce Light of Belleville, and Ken Crowley of Lincoln Park.

The money raised will be used to help send children to summer camp. Admission is $2.50 per couple.

Two levels of dancing are planned, one for regular and intermediate dancers, and another challenge level for more experienced dancers.

MICHAEL BURDEN will present a one-man dramatic show, "Man and His God" at 8 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 29, in the Student Activities Building of Madonna College.

Michael Burden To Give Show

A one-man performance, "Man and His God," will be presented Saturday, Jan. 29, at 8 p.m. by Michael Burden in the Madonna College Activities Building, 36600 Schoolcraft, Livonia. The production emphasizes the relationship that has existed between God and man since the beginning of time.

Michael Burden is the speech and drama instructor at Madonna College. He received his MA at St. Louis University in Missouri.

Burden portrays nine different characters drawing them from the Bible and literature. He illustrates the relationship of complete love as seen in Paddy Chayafsky's "Gideon" and moves to the doubts of Martin Luther, to only name two of his characters.

Each character envisions God in a different manner, ascribes different characteristics to Him and establishes a different relationship.

"The productions are not mere religious exercises," Mr. Burden explains. "They emphasize the universal man as a magnificent being capable of love, hate, joy and sorrow - emotions that prove him to be human and set him apart as the glory of creation."

Tickets for the performance are $1. They may be purchased at the door or by calling the college.
