CLARENCEVILLE

Mrs. Mary Rutla

Mrs. Thomas Charest of Seven Mile Road, Farmington, entertained relatives at a birthday supper for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lillian Charest, on her 78th birthday anniversary. Among the guests were Mrs. Mamie Tice, Mr. and Mrs. George Charest of Port Huron, Mrs. Ruth Mink and daughter Sherry, also of Port Huron, Mr. and Mrs. Acey Wilcox of Detroit, Mrs. Ruth LeBlanc, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Sewerker and Mrs. Helen Charest. Mrs. Charest's birthday would have been completely happy if her three grandsons could have been home. The eldest, Edward, is in a hospital in England. Thomas is stationed in San Diego and Walter in Los Angeles, Calif.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Frank Carter of Jackson, and her family, on the passing of her father, who died at his home near Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. Carter returned to her home on Friday after attending the funeral.

Mrs. Balfour, Mrs. Nina Wild and Mrs. Blainor are numbered among the women from Hope Chapel who work with the Mobile Canteen at Rouge Park each Wednesday.

The Arthur Hockings of Middle Belt entertained at a pot luck supper at their home on Saturday evening for members and friends of the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zingelman and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lint, Sr., returned on Friday from a trip to the Straits, and a couple of days spent at Grand Lake.

Birthday are the order of the day in this district during July, it seems. Tommy Rutla's mother entertained a number of boy friends in honor of his 7th birthday anniversary on Thursday. Mrs. Culham of Cambridge entertained in honor of Clifford Culham's 13th anniversary on Saturday and Mrs. Schenck and a group of children and mothers held a picnic luncheon on Monday at Lois Valley, in honor of little Kenny Schenck's third birthday, after which the children enjoyed the water in the wading pool.

The Kelly family of St. Francis spent three days of last week visiting with relatives in Emmett, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watwood of Middle Belt are receiving congratulations on the birth of a little daughter, Barbara Christine, at Pontiac General Hospital June 17. Billie Van Poppinger of Detroit is visiting with the Bollitts this week.

The Swarthout family left on Monday for a week's visit with Mr. Swarthout's mother near Muskegon, Michigan.

Mrs. Henry Robertson and Mrs. Orville Robertson entertained about twenty ladies on Saturday evening at a stork shower in honor of Mrs. George Lawrason. Mrs. Gladys Williams spent Sunday with relatives in Port Huron. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barnes attended a farewell party given by the Gus Meyers of Inkster for the Harry Bowers, who until a few years ago lived on Ontago, and are now moving to California.

The Putnam family purchased the house they occupied on Byron and have moved it around the corner onto Ontago.

Cubs of Pack 182 Hope Chapel held their circus on Saturday evening on the grounds surrounding Hope Chapel on Six Mile and Midvale Belt. The affair was quite well attended.

Cubs, parents and committee members were present at a Cubes held for the Northwest Detroit Packs at River Rouge Park on Sunday, which proved a huge success for its initial tryout. Tests were pitched, handicraft display, old, first aid station set up, and in the evening around a campfire, on Darley Hill, lit in the primitive way with flint and steel, by Major Otto who has been in Scouting for 35 years, a Pack meeting was held. The Major demonstrated methods used by the Indians and our forefathers in lighting fires, and addressed the huge gathering on the subject of "Old Scouts" and their part in the wars our country has participated in. Group singing was held. The meeting closed with the playing of Taps by one of the Scouts, the entire assembly sang, and the Cub Oath was given.

Mrs. Charles Brown and children spent the latter part of last week with the John Holroyds.

Mrs. William LaForge of Inkster entertained at a farewell party on Monday evening last week for her daughter, Mrs. Roger Glatfelter of St. Francis who left on Thursday for California, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. Leonard Denacour of Inkster entertained a large number of guests at a stork shower on Tuesday evening for Mrs. Walter Charest (Helen Butler) whose husband is stationed in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Anthony LaPorte of Cambridge returned on Friday from attending the wedding of her daughter, Jean Alice Samborsky, in South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryali and Peggy and Bill spent last Thursday at Put-In-Bay.

A number from this locality attended the Daughters of Isabella picnic at the Cronin residence on Greening Boulevard Sunday.

The Johnson family of Bensenville have purchased a new home on Nogaue and are located there at present.

Mrs. Balfour of Milburn spent Monday with friends in Dearborn. The Parents Club held their July meeting at the home of Mrs. Sinclair last Thursday.
