WEST POINT PARK

Mrs. William Zwahlen

War conditions have made it expedient, during the winter season, with its long dark evenings, to change the Sunday evening service at the Neighborhood Church to a Vesper Service to be held about 5 p.m. Young and old of the community are invited to enjoy these friendly gatherings.

Mrs. Andrew Waldsmith, who has been with her husband at St. Louis, Missouri, came home last week, her husband being moved to another camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harrison gave a dinner Sunday in honor of their son, Earl Junior, who is home from the Great Lakes on furlough. About fifteen guests from Detroit were present.

Miss Anne Morgan of Pontiac was the Friday dinner guest of Mrs. George Wohlart.

Miss Dorothy Altama was taken to Ford Hospital Sunday afternoon where she will be for a week or two. Miss Altama had one of her fingers caught in a punch press and was operated on last week Wednesday, infection having set in. She is now under observation at the hospital.

Twelve of the Girl Scouts, with their leader, Mrs. William Bagnun, started taking swimming lessons last Friday at Redford High School. The Scouts who held a bake sale last Saturday at the P.T.A. Hall cleared about $14.61 and they want to thank all those who helped them.

Nineteen ladies and seven little folks gathered at the Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon for the regular every-other-week meeting of the Sunshine Sisters.

A hymn-sing and a "Bible Quiz" were an enjoyable part of the devotional exercises. "Sunbeams"—that is happy thoughts—were contributed by Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mrs. Schult, Mrs. Muir and Lora

LOCALS

Frances and Nancy Hough were guests of the Mulligans on Alyce-Kay Road while their mother was in the hospital.

The Bond School has an honor roll with 21 names of boys in the service who attended Bond School or who have a brother or sister attending the school.

One of the Bond neighborhood's first pre-war fathers to be drafted is Mr. R. Myers of Rollcrest Avenue. The Myers have two children, Patty and Dolores, both attending Bond school. Mr. Myers will leave on Saturday. Mrs. Myers expects to maintain her home, and though she is not able to drive, we are sure her neighbors and friends will see that she gets to the store, to church, and perhaps to a movie now and then.

Little Helen Smil had the Hicks and Torreal children in for lunch, honoring his fourth birthday on Friday.

For a long time people have noticed how clean Bond School is kept. It was nice to have Mr. Ayres remark about it Monday evening. Much thanks should go to Mrs. Clappison, Mr. Pyorala and to the teachers.
