GIRL SCOUTS ENLIST IN WAR EFFORT

Mrs. Charles Anderson entertained the Brownie Troop 9 at a Halloween party October 29. The girls all came in costume and had a most hilarious time. The evening was spent with games and stunts and delicious refreshments were served.

The senior troop under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Hewitt are looking forward to a busy year. Their plans include activities that will aid the war effort. They will help with all the Civilian Defense jobs. The troop met at the home of Lois Gues Monday evening. Their guest was Mr. John Tigue who talked on Junior Citizen Service. Mrs. Anderson at his suggestion their first project will be joining the 31 Club. The aim of the club is to secure thirty-one housewives who will pledge themselves to save a tablespoon of waste fat every day or a pound a month. A good response is expected from Farmington women.

The girls will also dress Good-fellow dolls. The girls received their Senior Service arm bands. They plan to hold regular meetings once a month and each month some war service activity will be taken up.
