HELP Shorten THE WAR

Feeding America's workers adequately is the most important task facing the homemaker this winter. It is her duty to provide food which will supply all of the nutritive needs of her family. Wartime economy demands that we make the most of every point and penny — that is, that we spend them wisely for foods which we need.

Mrs. William Zwahlen

Wayne Ault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault of Mayfield Avenue, who was inducted into the Navy some eight weeks ago, arrived home Thursday evening to spend his first furlough with friends and relatives. He looks fine and is satisfied that the Navy is the best branch of the service.

Mrs. Walter Rehan has been ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolyard and Loren Ray, all of Detroit, were Saturday evening guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bolyard.

Rev. and Mrs. Axel Edwards and daughter, Shirley, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Peterson of Hubbard Avenue.

Little Jimmy Muir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muir of Shady-side Avenue, is somewhat improved after a siege of influenza, followed by a relapse.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson and tiny new daughter, Anne Marie, arrived home from Mt. Carmel Hospital Saturday evening. Both are doing nicely.

Mrs. Owen Stevens and son, Glenn, were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Frank Broquet.

Mrs. Margaret Martin attended the marriage Saturday evening of her grandson, Robert Borland, lately from the U.S. Air Force in Egypt, and Miss Eleanor Engle of Detroit. The ceremony was performed in the Covenant (Community) Church. Robert Hunter, Mrs. M. E. Ault, Lora Anne Ault and others from the neighborhood also attended the wedding festivities.

Lewis Graham of Mayfield Avenue was the unfortunate and innocent victim of a traffic accident last Wednesday afternoon. The car he was driving collided with a truck and was badly smashed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts and daughter, Audrey, visited Mr. Roberts' brother, George Roberts, who is quite ill in a Detroit hospital, Sunday afternoon.

Young Homer Coolman is ill with chicken pox.

Mrs. Russell Ault is having a lengthy siege of influenza. Her daughter, Shirley, who has been ill with scarlet fever, has practically recovered.

Wesley Smith, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Eight Mile Road, left for the U.S. Army Saturday morning.

Mrs. Jessie Edgington of Hubbard Avenue returned home on Thursday evening from a stay of a few days with friends in Detroit. This week she is leaving again for a vacation in Florida.

Jim Roberts of Farmington Road is home on furlough for his first visit since he was inducted into the Navy eight weeks ago.

Mrs. William Darnum was reported ill with influenza this past week.

Mrs. Frank Smith and youngest son, Allan, are both ill.

Rev. Axel Edwards of Royal Oak visited the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning, handed in his birthday pennies and had "Happy Birthday" sung in his honor.

Afterwards he gave the boys and girls of the school a very fine helpful talk on the Sunday School lesson for the day. At the 5 p.m. service he preached and will be heard again at the same time and place on January 22.

The Sunshine Sisters held their usual meeting in the Neighborhood Church on Wednesday afternoon. Bad weather and much sickness interfered with the attendance but the group enjoyed a profitable two hours together. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 19, at 2:30 p.m. in the Neighborhood Church.

Friday was Navy Day in Pierson School. Mrs. Wheeler, the principal, happened to see seated in a parked car outside the school building, a former pupil nattily attired in sailor's uniform. She escorted Wayne Ault into a classroom and gave him an appreciative audience to receive instructions regarding many of the details of life in the Navy. Partly as a result of this, perhaps, a number of the same youngsters who had listened so interestedly, rose promptly when Wayne entered Bible School Sunday morning in the Neighborhood Church, and burst out with "Anchors Aweigh."

Germ-Repellent Linen

Experiments now being conducted with various cleansing agents and sterilizing processes will make the towels, bed sheets, tablecloths, napkins and work uniforms of the future not only germ-free but germ-repellent.

Nylon Plastic

After the war, nylon will come to you not only as a yarn for stockings and fabrics, but as a plastic. Some things already have been made experimentally — tubing, rattan-like strips for outdoor furniture seats, crackless coated fabrics, carburetor diaphragms, coatings for electric wires. Even zippers have been molded of nylon.

P.T.A. MEETING
WILL STRESS
HOME RECREATION

The Farmington Parent Teachers Association is expecting a good crowd on hand for their next meeting, Tuesday, January 18, for the topic of the evening is "Home Recreation," and it should prove to be of interest to all parents.

The meeting will be in the form of a round table discussion, and it is hoped that many good ideas will come from parents, offering suggestions for entertainment and recreation in home. As one Farmington man remarked at a former P.T.A. meeting, "My children have no time for dancing and parties, for we have made our home life so interesting they have no time for outside entertainment."

Hobbies, good books, and companionship between parents and their children are first on the list of home interest. In addition to these, neighborhood parties may be held from time to time, with parents acting as hosts.

Make this meeting of the Parent Teachers Association your Number One social event for the week, and plan to attend other meetings during 1944. The time is 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington High School.

The committees, and others in charge of the evening's entertainment are headed by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kosmenky, Albert grade room parents; Mrs. Albert Beila, hobbies; Mr. Kosmenky, program chairman; Mrs. Charles Cronin, homemaking; Mrs. Vernon P. Fisher, parties; Mrs. August A. Terreault, publicity; Pat Young, and chorus, in charge of music; and Mrs. Stanley Packard, Mrs. Richard Wheeler, Mrs. S. H. Kosmenky and Mrs. Stanley Waters in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Edgar West and daughter are in Buffalo, New York, where they will remain to be near A/C Edgar West, while he is attending school at the University of Buffalo.
