Rings Perfect by ORANGE BLOSSOM The Proudest Name in Diamond Rings

TO some people the term Genuine Orange Blossom stands only for the design of diamond rings. . . . To thousands it signifies smart styling, dependable quality—and steadfast worth insured by perfection. The important thing is to demand genuine Orange Blossom Diamond Rings which differ from so-called blossom designs as day differs from night.

Service Notes

Vern Nelson, who has completed a special course of training in radio operation at Northwestern University, has been home on a 72 hour furlough.

Private Arthur R. Goers has recently been transferred, and is now at Camp Edison, New Jersey. He was formerly at the University of Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Myers of Norfolk Avenue, just received news that their son, Glen, on active service in Africa, is being placed on the limited services list, due to an arm injury.

Charles Roberts, son of Mrs. Virginia Roberts of Farmington Rd., has joined the Navy, but he will not be called for induction for about a month.

Jimmy Rice, son of Mrs. Blanche Rice Smith, of Hubbard Avenue, is home on furlough.

Jack Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman of Mayfield Avenue, has gone overseas.

Glen Vance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance of Mayfield Avenue, is still in the thick of things. He receives a jeep in northern Italy and writes that the fur-lined gloves recently sent him by his mother are proving a great comfort.

Staff Sergeant Robert Hunter, who was home on furlough for a month, reported last Monday to Clovis, New Mexico, located on the border. Bob has certainly done a lot of traveling as he fulfills the tasks assigned him by Uncle Sam.

Staff Sergeant Forrest Ault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault of Mayfield Avenue, writes from Brazil that he greatly enjoys the Enterprise. It comes by boat, and is often weeks late, but profitable nevertheless. The best of so says that Christmas on the other side of the equator was not so bad, for much was done to make the holiday a real one for the men in service.

Donald Voorhees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Voorhees of Irving Avenue, is now enrolled at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. Donald called his mother by long distance telephone Friday night.

Wayne Ault of Mayfield Avenue writes that he, with a group of Navy comrades was permitted to take in the sights of Chicago last week end. They enjoyed a real outing and have interesting stories to tell of their experiences. Wayne has advised his mother, Mrs. Clinton Ault, that he will receive twenty weeks of intensive college work, specializing in the "dots and dashes" he must learn as he studies radio work for the Navy.

WAC Hedwig Berger, of St. Martins Drive, now on duty in North Africa, entered a camel's race on New Year's Day, and came in second.

Kenneth Myers, Torpedo Mate Third Class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Myers of Long Avenue, Clarencville, is home for a few days. He is on delayed orders from San Diego, California, to Norfolk, Virginia, where he reports on Wednesday, January 25.

William Ping, Seaman Second Class, who died a hero's death at First Naval District Headquarters, Boston, on January 17, giving his life in a vain attempt to rescue a fellow sailor, who had been overcome by gas fumes, was the younger brother of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ping of St. Francis Avenue, Clarencville.

Corporal and Mrs. C. E. Alverson have been visiting friends and relatives in Farmington and Detroit for the past ten days. Corporal Alverson is stationed at Ft. Custer.

Staff Sergeant William Pauline is now stationed at Alliance, Nebraska, where he is at the head of the radio school.

Word has been received here of the promotion of Ted Andrews, who formerly made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grimwade, to Machinist's Mate, First Class. Ted is still located in the South Pacific area.

SUZANNE WARNER BECOMES BRIDE OF SAMUEL GRAHAM

Sunday, January 30, Suzanne Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Powell Warner of Nine Mile Road, became the bride of Samuel James Graham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Graham of Falls Village, Connecticut, at a marriage service read by Dr. Barton S. Levinger at All Saints Episcopal Church, Detroit.

The bride wore a floor length white marquisette dress with a yoke formed of embroidered batiste ruffles. The sleeves were three-quarter length and were also finished with ruffles. She wore a Juliet cap of silver net with a batiste ruffle across the back and a finger tip veil. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet with a paper fill.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Joyce Brown of Farmington, wore Alice blue marquisette made on similar lines, and a marquisette hat tied in back with blue velvet ribbons. She also carried an old-fashioned bouquet, but in shades of rose.

John Manson Warner, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the service, which took place at one o'clock, there was a buffet luncheon served to the immediate family at the Warner residence.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham and Miss Aurelia Graham of Falls Village, Connecticut, and Captain William J. Warner of Lompoc, California.

The couple will go to New York and Connecticut on their honeymoon.

Mr. Graham attended Hotchkiss School and Yale University and Mrs. Graham attended Antioch College.

Miss Ruth Schroeder and Miss Jean Claudy of Ionia were the weekend guests of Mrs. Martha Schroeder.

Those from Farmington who wish to attend the banquet are asked to get their tickets from Mayor Deles Hamlin or from Supervisor Ernest V. Blanchard.

Cooked Cereal

There are a number of interesting ways to use leftover cooked cereal. It can be reheated with chopped dried fruit such as figs or prunes and served as cereal. Or turn it into a mould, chill it, slice and fry it. Served piping hot with syrup or honey, or some of your own preserves or jelly, it is a fine luncheon or supper dish. Cooked cereal can be used, too, as a binder for meat loaf or meat balls.
