Give From Your Heart

The Fourth War Loan Drive is just about over and once again this community can point with pride to the results of the drive here. The people of Farm-ington assumed a personal responsibility in this drive to purchase extra War Bonds, and the final tabula-tion will show that they did more than their share.

And as this one drive is about ended, we find ourselves looking forward to another—this time to the American Red Cross War Fund. This is not just a Red Cross Roll Call. The Roll Call came in the days when we could reach down in our pocket and pull out a dollar, and that would be sufficient for us to smugly feel that we had done our share.

This is the War Fund drive. We've got to dig deeper than the dollar this time, to help the Red Cross support the many wartime activities for which it is responsible.

If you want some guarantee as to the importance If you wan some guarance as to the importance of this drive, just ask your boy or girl in service, or read some of the many, many letters which arrive almost daily from the far corners of this earth, and read of what they think of the Red Cross for the splendid way in which they rally to their comfort, both of mind and of body. both of mind and of body.

In times of great distress we find ourselves turn-ing instantly to the American Red Cross, looking to them for a quick solution to our difficulty. The work they have done for the families of prisoners of war, and of missing service men and the assistance they give in case of emergency furloughs and leaves is well known. Even if one never has occasion to call upon the Red Cross for this service, it is a comfort to know that it is there.

We do not have to go so far away from home to realize what the Red Cross does. In the case of an accident or of some catastrophe such as a flood, or a fire, the Red Cross stands ready to give whatever aid may be needed.

Somehow, the Red Cross seems to stand for so somenow, the near cross seems to stand for so may of our American ideals—and for the American way of doing things. That is the one big reason we must respond to the War Fund with the American support it needs and so richly deserves. It is your contributions that are going to carry on this great work, both with the armed services and here at

Your relatives and your friends will not be fail ed, if you do your part in the War Fund drive. Make your contribution early, and give as much as you can. Give from your heart, not just from your pocketbook.

Living in a Rut

Undoubtedly you have received, at one time or another during your life, the friendly advice of some acquaintance that you are "in a rut", and it was high time you got out of it. Perhaps the criticism was justified—but perhaps not.

An analysis of various biographies shows that all of us, to a degree, are in a rut—but is that so bad? It seems to me that it is a pretty important thing to find the right rut to be in. The right kind of a rut will offer security, friendliness and a good deal of happiness if we look for it—and what more can one, or should one expect than that?

A person who has found the right rut never

A person who has found the right rut never seems to realize that he or she is in a rut at all, for that rut forms their well-rounded life. Right now when so many seem to be in such a mental turmoil, those who have found their "rut", may well be considered among the more fortunate.

Hint for Ironing Day

Try spreading a worn-out sheet or tablecloit under yeur ironing board when pressing curtains, sheets, and other items that will touch the floor during ironing. This simple pre-caution prevents clothes from becoming dust-marked while they are still damp.

Of course not even the auditor general can determine with accuracy today what the economic trends will be during the next five years. He cannot foreteil whether the present high level of sales tax reveniue will continue to permit, during the next five years, a continuation of the annual surplus that, has blessed the state treasury.

But, assuming that the inflationary period will continue for several more years, then the next hurdle before the post-war planning program is already discernible. It is the pressure of local governments—cities, counties and townships—for a greater share of the state's surplus. The township supervisors have already informed the governor that they want

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO (February 21, 1919)

Death Caused by Burns

Hobert Graham, who was so terribly burned on atlempting to save his barn and contents which was burned on the morting of January 31st, passed sway last Saturday, February 15, 1919, after two weeks of intense suffering; He had been in poor health for some time and had about completed arrangements for retiring from the farm.

Before the time for calling the village caucus last Monday evening it became evident that the Council Chambers Water Works hall would not find the crowd that would be in attendamle, and the auditoilum of the Town Hall was put in shape for the assemblage. The caucus was called to order at the Council Chamber's by President Courge Prancis, and F. H. Nichols, chosen charman of the meeting. If. H. Hogh was elegied sceretary, and adjournment was then taken to the larger hall, where nearly 200 were assembled, the ladies being in mulority.

Bourlai Precedes Fatal Crain

A burial in Oakwood Cometery, Farmington, Tuesday afternoon was the forerunner of a fatal accident, in which a truck-driver was stilled, south of Farmington, in a collision with one of the cars returning from burial service. Eight boys and girls who had attended the funeral were slightly injured.

The Bond School, at Orchard Lake and Thirteen Mile Roads, has been closed, due to scarlet fever. Three cases are reported among children of the school. There is also one case in Farmington.

Peach Crop Believed Killed

A pruning demonstration was held Wednesday in the Hubbell Orchard at Milford and also, at the Grimmer Brothers Orchard at Farmington. Considerable discussion was entered into relative to the damage done by the cold weather on the peach crop for the coming year, and it was quite thoroughly conceded that the bulbs were entirely killed. Also much anxiety was expressed in regard to the winter injury to trees.
