PIERSON SCHOOL NEWS

The seventh and sixth grades had a dance on Friday, February 11. We had a nice time but the music didn't turn out to be very good. We were drawing pictures to represent George Washington's birthday and now we are drawing music posters. Miss Isham, our music teacher, brought our room a beautiful daffodil that someone gave her. She let us sketch it, and we have the drawings hanging on our bulletin board. Our teacher, Mrs. Glass, left, so our new teacher, Mrs. McCormick, came, but she also left, and now we're all in suspense to see who our next teacher will be. We have been trying to keep our room as clean as possible and we are succeeding some.

Saturday morning, February 19, some of the children from our room went to the young people's concert with our music teacher, Miss Isham, and her mother.
