The card party given by the Blue Star Mothers last Friday at Maccabees Hall was quite well attended, but the ladies could use more support considering the good work they do.

The Rutla residence on St. Francis has resembled an Indian encampment the past two Sundays with scouts busy painting their fire building and cooking tent. Leader Rutla knows not the hour of night, or day, a knock at the door will be a Scout wanting to name a few of the constellations, or pass a pacing test. This correspondent contends the modern Scout leader must be an authority on engineering, astronomy, first aid, outdoor life, camping, psychology, and many other sciences. The troop held a Board of Review on Monday night with Mr. Kenneth Riddle as a new committee member sitting in on the Board.

We are sorry to report Miss Kearley ill with influenza and laryngitis at her home in Bay City. Mrs. Scanlan of Dredon is recovering from a bad attack of influenza.
