Pop Legend Says Isles
Populated by Goddess' Kin According to the "Kojiki" and the "Nihongi," two legendary histories of Japan written in the eighth century A. D., the Japanese islands were created by the union of two deities, Izanagi (the male-who-invites) and his younger sister Izanami (the female-who-invites). Between the two they not only gave birth to the islands but produced numerous gods and goddesses who inhabited them.
 Amaterasu Omikami, the sun-goddess, after a series of quarrels with her brother, decided to populate the "land of reed plains" with her own brood. So she sent her grandson, with the command: "This reed-plain land of 14,000 autumn of fair ricemowers is the country over which my descendants shall be lords. Do thou, my august grandchild, proceed thither and rule over it. Get and may prosper stand by dynasty, and it shall, like heaven and earth, endure forever."
 From this divine brood came Jim-mu Tenno (the divine-warrior heavenly-emperor) who allegedly ascended the throne on February 11, 660 B. C. The dynasty thus founded is supposed to have continued for 25 centuries, through a line of 124 em-perors and empresses, down to Hiro-hito, the present incumbent.

Price Increases General
Through World Since 1939
 During recent years, commodity prices in all countries have shown an upward trend although the movement has been somewhat erratic.
 A recent study published in the League of Nations' Monthly Bulletin shows that the index of wholesale prices—the basis of January June, 1939, as 100—was 135 in the United States in the middle of 1943 and 187 in Canada.
 The price index in Great Britain was higher, standing at 166, but the indexes in the other British countries showed smaller increases. The index of wholesale prices in the Union of South Africa in the middle of 1943 stood at 149, that of New Zealand at 145, and that of Australia at 139.
 In the various Latin American nations, the prices have shown a more pronounced rise from the prewar level than in the United States or in Great Britain. Thus, for example, the index stood at 205 in Peru and at 188 in Argentina and Chile in the middle of this year.

List Five Pointers for Care of Water Heaters Here are a few pointers on care of gas water heaters:
 1. Brush burners at least twice a year. Clean burners give a clean flame and eliminate backfiring.
 2. Open the drain faucet at the bottom of the heater once a month or every two months to drain off sediment. Sediment, if not drained off, impairs the efficiency of the heater because it has an insulating effect. It is not necessary to drain off much water, just a quart or two until the water runs clear.
 3. Water heaters as well as hot water piping should be insulated to conserve heat.
 4. The thermostat of the water heater should be adjusted so that the temperature will not exceed 140 degrees. Excessive temperatures not only waste fuel but may be injurious to the heater and the piping.
 5. Conserve fuel by having leaking faucets repaired and by not washing dishes in running hot water.

Electricity Everywhere;
Difficult to Define
 "What is electricity?" is often asked of the scientists in General Electric's research laboratory, popularly known as the "House of Magic." L. A. Hawkins, executive engineer of the laboratory, has an answer, although he says whether an answer is possible depends on the kind of definition desired.
 "For instance, the question 'What is water?' may be answered in three different ways," explains L. A. Hawkins, whose company for the past 65 years has been applying electricity to everything from a miniature light bulb slightly larger than a pinhead to a mammoth 200,000-kilowatt turbine in a power station.
 "First, we may define water by its composition; second, by its source or occurrence; and third, by its properties, its boiling and freezing points, its density, its action as a solvent, its part in maintaining life, etc.
 "But when we come to electricity, we find only one kind of definition is possible, because electricity is the most fundamental thing in the universe and is the thing of which everything else is made. Electricity cannot be defined by its composition, for it is composed only of itself. Neither can it be defined by its source or occurrence, for it is everywhere, wherever there is matter or radiant energy.
 "Therefore, electricity can be defined only in the third way, by its properties—and it describes these properties adequately requires a book or several books."

DE ROY'S GIVE
 FREE
 CIGARETTES
 For Men In Service!
 We want to say "Happy Birthday" to our friends in the armed forces with a carton of cigarettes . . . but we need your help and we know you will be glad to give it. All we want you to do is give us the name, address and birth date of a male relative in any branch of military service . . . stationed throughout the world. We will send him a carton of cigarettes with our compliments on his birthday . . . or as near to it as possible.

There is no red tape involved . . . no purchase necessary . . . no obligation of any kind. This is just a part of the neighborly spirit that has always prevailed at DeRoy's . . . and the more cigarettes we send the better we'll like it. We urge you to give us promptly the necessary data in the coupon provided below so we can remember as many boys as possible on their birthdays.

In case the name of a serviceman is furnished by more than one person . . . only one carton of cigarettes will be mailed. This offer applies only to servicemen stationed throughout the world.
