DELOS HAMLIN, Mayor
HARRY W. MOORE, City Clerk

was tendered a birthday surprise Saturday evening. On his way from work he stopped at the residence of his married daughter, Mrs. Owen Stevens to meet and bring home Miss Ruth Broquet. He found assembled there most of the children, grandchildren and other relatives from this section. Congratulations were showered upon Mr. Broquet and he received a large number of useful gifts. Birthday cake, with accompaniments, was, of course, a feature.

Norfolk Avenue, between Farmington Road and Mayfield, is in a worse condition than it has ever been in all its history. Hitherto, it has always been the most easily traveled highway in the Folker subdivision. Right now it threatens to become impassable. It is hoped that the road commissioners may soon be able to do something about it.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson and daughter, Marlon, Miss Lora Ault and Miss Freda Ault were visitors together in Plymouth Monday of this week.

In West Point Park there is at least one very conscientious resident who at the same time is most modest in the methods to which he makes amends for wrongs done of which he considers himself responsible. Recently a dog killed a chicken in the yard at the Broquet residence on Norfolk Ave. Neither the animal nor the owner were known but there was plenty of evidence to the effect that a dog was the miscreant. A few days later Mr. Broquet discovered that during the night a fine Plymouth Rock hen, new to the flock, had been carefully placed within the chicken house. It lays every day and is really a valuable asset. Inquiries were made but no one in the neighborhood owned up to having had such a foul lot or stolen. So the conclusion is made that it was, under the cover of darkness, bestowed as recompense. Other happenings of a similar nature have occurred from time to time in the same neighborhood.

Harold McVicar, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McVicar, Norfolk Ave., was tendered a party by a number of his friends and playmates at his home Saturday afternoon. The affair was in honor of his seventh birthday. There
