Service Notes

March 13, 1944

Dear Editor:

Well here it is—the long lost letter. Sorry I haven't written before, but I have moved around so much that I never found time to write, except to the folks.

I received the March 2 copy of the paper, and it is the first since I left Great Lakes.

I wish to thank you for sending

Seeks Relection to Congress

George A. Dondero

Member of Congress
17th Michigan District

To the People of the 17th Congressional District
of Michigan:

This will announce my candidacy on the Republican ticket, for reelection as Representative in Congress for the 17th District of Michigan.

During my service in Congress I have endeavored to express your will, reflect your wishes, serve you faithfully and sincerely in the many phases of Congressional work, and to preserve the Republic of the United States with freedom and justice for all.

To win the war and achieve a just and lasting peace is our first duty and responsibility to the nation.

Sincerely yours,

Geo. A. Dondero

Member of Congress
17th Michigan District

Landscaping that Sergeant Kenneth Schweitzer learned while working at Farmington Gardens Nursery is coming in handy as he has full charge of landscaping the squadron area and around the chapel at the Altus Army Air Field in Oklahoma, where he is stationed. He made a flying trip to Oklahoma City and Vernon, Texas, to purchase trees and shrubs. His mother, Mrs. Anton Schweitzer, is visiting Sergeant and Mrs. Schweitzer and daughter, Janice, in Altus, Oklahoma.
