LOCAL LADS HAND NORTHVILLE 14-3 DRUBBING

In a game on Thursday, April 26, the Farmington Falcon's baseball team smashed out a decisive 14-3 victory over a loose fielding Northville squad, which made five errors. Dave Carley started and won the victory, although Bacon, Van Hulle, and Banghart pitched, too.

The F.H.S. boys pounded out 10 hits and walked 5 times to compile the 14 runs. Six of the team's 14 runs were gathered in the fourth inning on 2 hits and 4 walks. The line-up was as follows:

|                 | AB | H | E | Pct.  |
|-----------------|----|---|---|-------|
| Asch/Bren'er, c | 2  | 0 | 0 | .500  |

Sophomores To Hold Dance On May 5

We hear the sophomores are having a party on Friday, May 5, from 6:30 o'clock to 11 o'clock. First they will play games on the football field to work up a good appetite for that pot-luck lunch to follow. The evening will be continued with dancing in the gym to the recordings of well known orchestras. Every sophomore may invite one guest.

Don't forget the Physical Fitness Meet this Friday, April 28.

'TIS SAID . . .

Get down on your knees, chillun, and pray for good weather for the Prom—Confucius say: Stringy hair and wet feet make a pretty girl wall-flower. It seems as though John Jeppom, the superman, has turned himself into a Hawaiian hula dancer. Why don't you come to the Prom in that grass skirt? We'd have a nice place for you. . . Say, did I hear someone remark that the good morrow of the Service boys was greatly due to the letters they received? If that's the case, Burke Johnson, who is 'way off in New Guinea, ought to be full of pep; he received 33 letters in one day and 15 of them were from Jackie. —My, my, when does she find time to do her school work? . . . In our "foreign" correspondence we want to say hello to an old classmate, who will probably be thinking of us during the last few weeks of school. We'll be missing you, Barbara Haggard. —Stella Lookin.

FRED KUPSKY QUALIFIES FOR V-12 PROGRAM

Frederick Kupsky, a senior, was sworn into the United States Naval Reserve, Tuesday, April 18, as a prospective candidate for officers' training. Fred was the only boy out of 20 in F.H.S. that passed both the mental and physical requirements for the Navy V-12 program. The intelligence tests were given March 15. He is now on inactive duty until he gets his orders, which will be either July 1 or November 1, according to the need of the Navy.

Fred had a choice of colleges and chose the University of Michigan or Northwestern in Chicago. He will study engineering, preferably electrical engineering.

As the physical and mental requirements for this program are very high, the entire school joins with the Blue and White staff in congratulating an all-around swell guy. —L.L.

Student Council Settles Dispute

Everyone has entered more or less into the discussion about the Varsity letters and the extent to which they should be used. At a meeting last week, the Student Council came to a decision concerning these letters. They concluded that letters may be awarded for outstanding work in exceptional fields (such as athletics, music, dramatics and journalism) upon certain conditions.

These conditions are: Teachers wishing to award letters in their fields must make a list of requirements a student should fulfill before he gets his award; this list is to be submitted to the council on school year in advance of the time it is to go into effect; the council will approve the list. It was also decided that only Athletic and Band members will be allowed to wear stripes. —Z.L.

F.H.S. Graduates To Be Entertained

The senior class and faculty of Farmington high have been invited to a banquet to be given by the Baptist Church early in May. The dinner will be held in the dining room of the church at 6:30 p.m. —J.E.
