MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS ENJOY ANNUAL BANQUET

The Sunshine Sisters, in cooperation with the Neighborhood Bible School held their annual Mother and Daughter supper and day evening at the Neighborhood Church. The church was beautiful, with a profusion of flowers.
About sixty persons were in attendance at the banquet. The meeting opened with a hymn, after which grace was said by Rev. Axel Edwards. The meal, a pot luck affair, was enjoyed by all, and after a short song service Rev. Gordon Cameron led in prayer to open the program.

Mrs. M. E. Ault extended the toast to the daughters, and it was returned by her own daughter, Mrs. Edwin Johnson. Mrs. Cameron gave the main address. Rev. Edwards sang two solos, accompanied by his guitar, a trio of ladies, Mrs. Walter Dixon, Mrs. Gordon Vance and Mrs. Marvin Peterson, sang two selections, and Helen Peterson and her sister, Esther Sisk, sang a duet in Swedish. Shirley Ault rendered a clarinet solo, and a group of young ladies from the Neighborhood Bible School sang a number of selections, greatly appreciated by all.
The usual presentation of plants came at the end of the evening. Mrs. Margaret Martin, the oldest mother present, received a lovely white geranium. Another was presented to Mrs. John Varhol, who attended with her four daughters. Little Anne Johnson, the youngest daughter, received a dainty begonia. A beautiful plant was set aside for Mrs. William Zwahlen, the one Blue Star Mother claimed by the neighborhood, having a daughter on the church Honor Roll. Mrs. Cameron also received a plant, and both Mr. Edwards and Mr. Cameron carried bouquets home with them.

Prayer of dismissal was made by Mrs. Cameron.

WAITING LIST FOR TELEPHONES IS INCREASING

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company today announced it has a waiting list of more than 75,000 orders for telephone service that it cannot fill because of the demands of war for communication facilities.

Ned L. Walker, manager for the company, said the backlog of unfilled orders is increasing at the rate of nearly 7,000 a month, with no prospect that the situation will improve for some time. He pointed out that Western Electric Company, manufacturing unit of the Bell System, has confined virtually its entire output since November, 1942, to military and war production needs. Western Electric is making more than a third of all communication facilities manufactured in this country for war.

The announcement said that there are 414 delayed orders in the Farmington exchange area.
The situation is so critical at most points in the company's territory, Mr. Walker continued, that service can be granted only if it is essential to the war, public health, or the public security, as defined by regulations of the War Production Board. If spare facilities are available after meeting that priority, orders are then filled on a first-come, first-served basis.
"Telephone instruments do not comprise the only shortage of facilities for civilian purposes," Mr. Walker said. "More than half the delayed orders also are held up because of shortage of cable, wire, and central office facilities. Two years of war have used up about all of the reserves which always have been built into the telephone system."
Recent announcement by the Western Electric Company that it has been authorized to resume the limited manufacture of telephone sets for civilian use, beginning next fall, will have no appreciable effect on the shortage situation for some time, according to Mr. Walker.

The number authorized to be made and released is a mere "drop in the bucket" in comparison with the number of delayed orders, he pointed out, and even the limited supply will not be available for some months in the future.

Mrs. Paul Schreiber and daughter, Margaret, have returned home after spending two weeks visiting in Grand Rapids, Lowell and Holland. While in Grand Rapids they attended the wedding, Sunday, June 11, of Ensign Charles D. Jewell, son of Lt. Colonel C. D. Jewell, Mrs. Schreiber's brother, who was also home on leave. At Holland they were the guests of Mrs. Charles R. Sligh Jr. at her home on Lake Macatawa and at the yacht club they witnessed an exhibition of water skiing. Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber are leaving Richard Schreiber there for a longer visit with his grandfather and aunt.

FIREWORKS AT EDGEWATER PARK FOR FOUR NIGHTS

Fireworks blazing high overhead in flaming bursts of rainbow colors will light the sky above Edgewater Park for four nights over the Fourth of July weekend. Sizzling pinwheels, altitude-breaking skyrockets, beautiful color and picture bursts, will be part of the big free display to be featured July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

In addition, a change of circus acts is scheduled with the Great Jansley appearing for the last time Saturday night, and the Great Fussner coming in on Sunday to stay over the Fourth.

Jansley appears at a 205 foot swaying pole, the highest high act in the world.

Fussner performs unbelievable acrobatics on a globe 10 feet in diameter while rolling down a 100-foot slope.

The big World's Fair "Believe It or Not" freak show, made famous by Robert Ripley is also present. There's a girl who swallows a lighted neon tube and a man whose head revolves.

Edgewater Park, the "world of fun," will be open both afternoons and evenings—Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The large picnic grounds, with free gas furnished for cooking and huge shade trees over all benches and tables, the baseball diamond, the roller-skating rink—all make Edgewater a perfect spot for the family's holiday fun.

The Meyers Family Glass show, where glass vases, birds and animals are being blown all day and evening, is an extremely interesting historical exhibit.

Edgewater's huge new parking lot offers free supervised parking and shuttle-buses run regularly from the Grand River Lahser lines.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts, Livonia Troop No. 1, held a swimming party and picnic at the Old Homestead on Saturday, June 17. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Barnum, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Bonner and Mrs. Schaffer.

THEATRE MATINEE IS SCHEDULED FOR JULY 4

If the Fourth of July proves to be as hot a day as some have experienced this week, undoubtedly there will be a good many looking for some cool, comfortable place to spend the afternoon.

That is the point at which Mr. McConnell, manager of the Civic Theatre, has a suggestion to offer. Because of the holiday there will be a matinee at the Civic Tuesday afternoon, July 4, the box office opening at 1:30 p.m. You couldn't find a cooler spot, and you're sure to enjoy the feature, "Stage Door Caution," along with a special subject, "Report From the Aleutians."

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reinke attended the Durling family reunion on Sunday in Durand. Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Anna Smith of Durand, returned with them for a visit here.

Your Vote Will Elect Liddicoat our SHERIFF

Oakland County needs an efficient, capable and qualified man to conduct the Sheriff's office. Mr. Liddicoat has these qualifications. Republicans believe he is the man for this position.

Liddicoat Pledges

SHERIFF'S COUNCIL. An important and far-sighted recommendation. Leading citizens in all sections of the county will be invited by Liddicoat to serve and advise him.

SPECIAL DEPUTIES. Possible citizens will be asked by Liddicoat to serve as special deputies.

RESIDENTIAL PATROL. Re-vamping of present wasteful and inefficient system will be instituted by Liddicoat. Residential officers will augment local police where desired.

OFFICE RECORDS. There will be no more "lost files" in the sheriff's office. Liddicoat will install an efficient system.

VETERANS. Mr. Liddicoat will assist returning veterans in need of rehabilitation. He is a veteran of World War I, as is Farmington Police Chief DeVries, who will be under-sheriff. Oakland County has never elected a veteran as sheriff.

STAFF MEMBERS. Former sheriff's officers who have left because of dissatisfaction with conduct of the office, will be asked by Liddicoat to rejoin the staff.

OFFICER TRAINING. Liddicoat will insist that officers be instructed in modern police methods, attend classes and learn proper use of firearms.

CO-OPERATION. As Sheriff Liddicoat will co-operate with all law enforcement agencies. F. B. I., State Police, courts, constables and local police.

JUVENILE CARE. A member of Liddicoat's staff will be assigned in juvenile work. His services will be available to all groups and individuals.
