NOVI NEWS

By Mrs. George Walte

Mrs. Alma Klansner, Mrs. Signa Mitchell and Mrs. Alice Clemen were Pontiac visitors on Friday. Miss Cora Hake is on the sick list.

There was an error in the amount made at the supper and auction given by the Rebekahs and Oddfellows. It read they cleared in the neighborhood of $250, and it should have been $350.

The Donald Durfee and Miss Mary DeLand of Detroit were Sunday visitors at the Fred Durfee's.

Mrs. William Maize is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hines entertained a party of friends from Berkley on Wednesday evening, at a pheasant dinner.

David Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Hines of Twelve Mile Road, is home on a ten day furlough.

Mrs. Maude Drullard was pleasantly surprised by the arrival of her son, Harold, MM 3/c, for a 7-day furlough. He left by plane on Thursday evening to report to Washington.

The Rebekah Club met at the hall on Wednesday for a pot luck dinner.

Dick Ambler of Northville was a caller at the Waite home on Saturday.

Mrs. Helen Olivich has returned home from the hospital and is reported as doing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. David O'Leary have moved into their newly purchased and remodeled home.

The Rebekah Lodge initiated seven new candidates last Thursday evening. This was the first time their new drill team had done the work under their new captain, Mrs. Roy Schramm. They looked very lovely in their formal, of pastel shades, and the work was well done, after which a pot luck supper was served to a company of about sixty.

Jay Leavenworth of Northville, now with the army in California, was a caller at the Waite home one day the past week.

Mrs. Helen Stevenson, whose husband is in service, and some-where on a hospital ship after being wounded, has purchased the Brockway home on First Street, and on Saturday evening had a house warming.

Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson attended their 500 Club in Salem on Saturday evening.

Six couples from here were entertained at the Jim Radcliffe's home in Redford on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Warren Rice of Pontiac was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry.

Mrs. William Stevenson of South Rockwood has been spending the past two weeks at the Eugene Root home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Brooks entertained their pedro club on Friday evening.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE TEAMS HAVE PRACTICE

Some practice debates, in which no decisions were rendered, were held Tuesday between members of debating teams from Farmington High School, and from Warren High School. All chairmen were from Farmington, and teams were composed of two members each.

In the first practice debate, Tom Roseberry and Carolyn Farmer of Farmington took the negative issue, while Mariel DesGrandchamps and Shirley Peters of Warren were on the affirmative team. Chairman was Janet Robertson.

In the second negative team were Lois Goers and Lorraine Miller for Farmington and Steve Miller and Alma Barr of Warren on the affirmative team. Marian Vanderburg was chairman.

On the affirmative team in the third debate were Mary Taddeo and Pauline Early of Farmington and Delores Weber and Freder- ick Dumbler of Warren on the negative side. Chairman was Jacqueline Waligora.

Lawrence Reed of Warren is coaching debate teams there, while Miss Allison, assisted by Miss Pavlovich and Lloyd Smith is in charge of the forensic group at Farmington.

WEST FARMINGTON By Mrs. Lyman Bush, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Huitts and daughter, Mary, spent Friday in Manchester, Michigan, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Palacky and daughter, Linda.

Mrs. Herman Gerds received word from her son, Pfc. Donald E. Gerds of the U.S. Marine Corps informing her that he had reached his destination overseas. She also received word from her other two sons telling her where they are stationed. S/Sgt. Les C. Gerds is in the Netherlands. East Indies, and S/Sgt. Herman A. Gerds, Jr. is in Luxembourg.

David Bush has been very ill the past week but is much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Huitts and daughter, Mary, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Wixom.

Miss Evelyn Hill is confined to her home with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Louis Schultz and daughter, Jackie, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerds and family.

Bob Gerds was confined to his home Monday on account of illness, but was able to return to school on Tuesday.

Word has been received here from Margaret H. Gerds, S/c of the Waves, that she is receiving the Farmington Enterprise each week, and is enjoying it very much. S/c Gerds is a niece of Mrs. Lyman Bush, Jr.

COMMUNITY DANCE SERIES ENDS SATURDAY

The last dance of the 1941 Community Dance Series will be held Saturday evening, November 4, at 9:00 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Modern and old time dance music will be provided by Tim Doonittle's W.R. Orchestra for the enjoyment of young folks and adults. Refreshments are included in the price of admission.

The dance series has been endorsed by local civic organizations and several community recreation leaders in Michigan. The sponsors who have operated the dances on a non-profit basis, appeal to members of the community to support the dance series as a means of providing dance orchestras for enjoyment of family groups, fraternal organizations and social groups.
