STILWELL IN WASHINGTON

Gen. Joseph Stilwell has been removed by President Roosevelt as Commander of the China-Burma-India war theater, reportedly because of differences with Chiang Kai-Shek. Gen. Stilwell, now in Washington, is slated for a new important command.

assumed such proportions that the fire department had to be called last Tuesday afternoon. The blaze was quickly extinguished, but an entire subdivision had been threatened and firemen agreed it had been wise to call on them for help.

Several nights before Halloween pranksters, as usual, overturned a large number of small outbuildings throughout the community.
But it was discovered that one such small outbuilding stood near a tiny cottage, occupied by a slip of a girl-wife, with three small children and a husband in the Navy. She had no one to do odd jobs about the place. So on Halloween night the building was very carefully set up again by the same hands which had overturned
it.

Also, Charles Davis, proprietor of the Country Store, discovered a mighty stack of packing cases blocking his back entrance, the very evening he had an important summons to Detroit. He hurried back, expecting to lose a night's rest getting ready for the next day's work. But to his surprise, all the packing boxes were cleared away and the back entrance neat and clean.

The Neighborhood Church held Open House Tuesday evening.
There was no rowdiness but all through the evening groups of boys and girls kept trooping into the building. They would sit by the warm stove and visit a little and Sunshine Sisters were on hand to pass out cookies. Various performances entertained the ladies in attendance. A number of songs were sung and two piano selections rendered.

The first of a series of cottage prayer and Bible study meetings being conducted under the auspices of the Neighborhood Church took place at the home of Mrs.
George Welch, Mayfield Ave. on Thursday evening. The attendance was encouraging. This Thursday night, Nov. 9th, it is planned to meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Rehahn, Mayfield

Ave. These meetings start at 8 p.m. are informal in character, and anyone, young or old, in the community is cordially invited to attend.

School is arranging some special features at its regular 11 a.m. service. Mothers, wives, and sweethearts of servicemen are cordially invited to attend and participate in the prayers for peace.

Sailor Donald Voorhees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Voorhees, and who for a while was reported ill in a South Pacific Area hospital, jobs about the place. So on Hal-
it.

ownership, we may gradually increase government's control over business itself. The latter may be the lesser of two evils. "As little government as possible will then become "as much government as necessary."

American newspapers have a big responsibility to keep their readers fully informed.
If our democracy is to act intelligently, the people must have the facts.

The primary function of the paper is to print the news. What the Democratic nominee said was related. Without bias—often word for word as he gave his speech.
The Republican nominee received the same treatment.
Letting the clips fall where they may, printing the news as it happens is the fundamental honesty of the American newspaper. That is why this column, disturbing as some of it may be to you, is being printed in your hometown newspaper.
