may tend to incriminate himself.
"In bribery cases all parties are equally involved as to guilt. Because of the individual's constitutional protection, the state is helpless to get testimony in such cases. The situation is remedied when the judge issues a written order commanding the witness to answer questions and granting him legal immunity from prosecution. Then if the witness refuses to answer questions, he can be held guilty of contempt of court."
.....

"Now you can't give immunity to everybody. The witness must be an important link in the crime. Usually he is one of the biggest rogues. In granting immunity the judge must decide whether to grant it to a public official or a private citizen. I always felt that the official was the worst criminal of the two, for he had violated his sacred oath of office. I would rather grant immunity to a private citizen.

"This weapon of immunity is the only way to solve conspiracies which involve many persons. It is society's best protection against potential corruption in government. For the question before public officials is always this: Which one of us may get immunity? Not knowing, who may squeal, each official is likely to remain honest.

"It is my personal conviction that were it not for the device of immunity for key witnesses, we would have continual corruption in government.

"Immunity polices your government. It allows conscience to assert itself, and conscience is a mighty force for justice. I have seen men get down on their knees and pray that they may be permitted to tell the truth. The light of conscience burns most brightly in hours of darkness. The best testimony comes at night."

Senator Ferguson recalled how he had to wait until 12:01 a.m. one Monday to receive testimony, as the law prohibits the taking of evidence on Sunday. He merely engaged the witness in conversation until the clock indicated at midnight the arrival of Monday.

"Again I want to emphasize it is important for the grand jury to have enough time to do the job. If you don't do the job well, you are wasting it all."

As an illustration of the value of the one-man grand jury to good government, Senator Ferguson cited the Michigan State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. "These agencies not only solve crimes, they prevent crimes," he pointed out. "That they are well worth their annual cost."

"The one-man grand jury is a 24-hour-a-day agency in which life itself may be at stake. My own life was threatened repeatedly. But crooks are cowards at heart, and I knew it."

As for the one-man grand jury investigation at Lansing, Senator Ferguson indicated he had been following its progress through the press. "These remarks of mine were prompted by my own personal experience as a one-man grand jury. I feel definitely that the system itself is sound. It is cheap insurance for good government."
