Herbert Ghirthere is red award and Taft Road, accompanied by Charles Steinagbei, recently returned from a bunding trip in Mackinaw County in the Upper Peningsida. There is not anything too unusual about a hunting trip, but when one sees a 208-pound black bear only a few feet away, as Herbert did, and shoots him, and his companion comes back with an 8-point buck, it puis a different angle to the story. The bear will be mounted to life-size at the Guntz-viller Taridermy establishment at Ten Mile and Taft Roads, and will be on display there.
