Ski Heil BvBILL CAMERON

It is a shame that this has been such a rotten winter locally. Especially with all the interest generated in cross-country for touring) sking.

John Barnett of the Viking Ski Shop, one of the prime movers of the sport was reflecting on this subject recently. Which brought to mind my experience at Georgian Bay which I inadverentity failed to mention.

I had my group all excited about renting equipment and taking a lesson at Blue Mountain which has some excellent rails. Unfortunately our tour leader changed plans and we went to Georgian de we will be considered and we went to Georgian and we went to Georgian Peaks instead. When I have it in my mind to go touring, I may be to the construction of the properties of the construction of the properties of the construction of the cons or no trails.

The ski school director told for the ridge and ski for miles I decided that was no miles I decided that was no me and away I skert had no rental equipment but had the foresight to bring my own).

THE IDEA of touring is to go in a group across country. This is recommended because you can take turns breaking tour around and followed the ridge around and followed that was not the test of snow is work, believed of snow is work, believed around and followed that the ridge around a rolling that the ridge around a r
