WEST POINT PARK

Miss Idale Coolman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman, Shadydale Ave., and a senior in Farmington High School, was taken seriously ill the middle of last week and removed to New Grace Hospital, Detroit, where an operative operation was performed Saturday. She is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected.

Billy Varhol, who was rushed to Redford Receiving Hospital and treated for a serious case of blood poisoning ten days ago, is now home again and getting about much as usual.

Young Charles Hoff of Mayfield Ave. had a serious attack of illness last week.

Edward Stange, Jr. who underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation at New Grace Hospital the day after Christmas, is up and about his home and expects soon to join his playmates out-of-door.

Little Miss Pamela Stieland, of Mayfield Ave., has recovered from a severe case of measles.

Mrs. Stanley Shiffing, Pembroke Ave., has been ill with rheumatism, this last week and unable to be at her employment.

Wallace Buckingham, accompanied by his parents, visited and was treated at Henry Ford Hospital Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Oman, Irving Ave., has been suffering with influenza.

Mrs. Homer Coolman and Miss Dolores Ault visited New Grace Hospital Sunday afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, who formerly lived on Seven Mile, West Point Park, but who now resides in Michigan, have learned that she is just now recovered from a severe illness.

Her mother, Mrs. Pointer, and cousin, Betty Randall, who are also former residents of West Point Park, now living in California, spent Christmas with her.

Thomas Gillespie, Jr., is still stationed in England. His wife and daughter remain in Detroit.

Many accidents and near accidents were caused by slippery highways this last week. Saturday Russell Ault, on his way to Willow Run, was struck by another car and driven into the ditch on Ford Road. He himself escaped injury but his automobile was considerably damaged and the insurance company is in the endeavoring to make adjustment.

Fire of undetermined origin gutted the interior of the Norbert Schmidt property on Shadydale Ave. last Friday morning. Very early Mrs. Schmidt detected smoke but could find no cause and imagined a poorly working oil heater was sending out fumes. Finally the attic of the home was discovered to be on fire. Evidently the blaze had been smoldering for hours. Neighbors promptly came to the rescue and the Redford fire department was called. The flames were soon extinguished, but a considerable amount of damage was done to the interior of the house and its furnishings. It is understood the loss is partially covered by insurance. Until necessary repairs are made, the Schmidt family is staying with relatives on Seven Mile Road.

It has been only a few weeks since the McVicar home on Norfolk Ave. was threatened under such the same circumstances. In this instance neighbors drenched the blaze before it was necessary to call the Fire Department.

It has been announced that in case of fire or disaster in this community and where victims and workers are likely to suffer from exposure and lack of food the Red Cross will send representatives to the scene with conveniences for administering to the comfort of those in need. Only a short time ago women of the Red Cross contributed to real service by providing hot coffee at such a place. In such an emergency a call to Mrs. A. D. Ault on Irving Ave., will reach the Red Cross and secure its aid.

Little friends and playmates of Miss Ruth Ann Coolman gathered in her home on Shadydale Ave. Friday afternoon and aided in celebrating her fourth birthday. There were the usual features of such an affair.

Miss Lora Anne Ault spent New Year's Eve and Day at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson on Clarissa Ave.

Also joined the Johnsons for New Year's Day dinner when a celebration was in order for the first birthday of her granddaughter, Baby Anne Johnson.

Mrs. Margaret Martin spent New Year's week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Stromoski, and other relatives near Eloise.

Mrs. and Mrs. Melvin Stromoski and daughter, Christie, of Wayne were Sunday callers in West Point Park.

Mrs. Robert Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Dagg, from near the Children's Home, were Friday afternoon guests of Mrs. Emerson Ault.

Person School pupils are returning to their duties Wednesday of this week, making them quite envious of their older brothers and sisters who go back to High School next week.

It is reported that Mrs. Lawrence May, with her little daughter, will shortly join her husband who is stationed and pursuing a course of study at one of our southern camps.

Rev. Axel Edwards will speak to the Neighborhood Bible School at its first session of New Year next Sunday, January 7, at 11 a. m. Adults as well as young people are invited to step in and hear the message.

With the days beginning to get longer, the time for the Yearly Meeting of the Neighborhood Church has been moved up from 6 to 6:30 p. m. Next Sunday evening the subject under discussion will be "Beginning a New Year." Several persons are scheduled to take a part in the program and the results promise to be interesting. The meeting is for old and young alike.

Staff Sgt. Robert M. Hunter writes that he would be glad to exchange some of New Year's dust for a lot of our West Point Park snow. 1st Class Seaman Wayne Ault says he'd like to trade some of California's liquid sunshine for the sleet and fog we complain about. But T/Sgt. Forrest E. Ault has actually managed, in a way, to exchange commodities. Some of our precious Michigan sugar has gone into the making of candy etc. for his benefit at this season; while his relatives here have been receiving generous baskets of citrus fruits ripened in Florida's sun.
