

CLARENCEVILLE

By Mrs. Axel Rutla

Mrs. Helen Barnes has returned to her home on Ontario, following an extensive visit with her sons and their families in southern California.

Edith Pink is spending the week at Houghton Lake with nine sorority sisters. She returns to Ypsilanti for the month of July where she will be associated with the playground program.

Doris Colebank, Dorothy Evelyn, Joseph Dell, Cyril Scholten, Evelyn Jewett, Milton Knight, Richard Matz, Norma Howe, Alvin McCurdy, Jane Follone, Carl Reigal, Ruth Peters, Janet Rouse, Barbara Stever, Marion Vanderburgh and Betty Winters of this district were among the 17 Farmington High graduates whose exercises were held last Thursday evening. Hearty congratulations.

Mrs. Warren Ketcham was honored on Monday evening when the staff of Botsford Tavern surprised her with a going away party. Mrs. Ketcham is leaving Botsford for the summer after working hard since its opening last September.

On Monday, June 18, Mr. A. A. Mann will commence instructions on instruments for the Band. Those interested are asked to please be on hand at his home, 2916 Ronsealer promptly at 8:00 a.m.

Your support is needed at the Band Boosters Mothers Club card party on Monday, June 18, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the High School. Everyone invited. The Scouts collected approximately five tons of waste paper on Sunday.

CITATIONS GIVEN TO STUDENTS FOR BOND SALES

Students of Farmington Public Schools had an excellent report to make this year in the sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps. At the close of the school year, citations were given to those students who had worked so hard through the year to make this excellent record possible.

Those receiving citations were: Pat Bradley, Jack Boyce, Frank Coon, Nan Jenny, Fred Peters, Chuck Markham, Susie Labadie, Anna Marie Ruch, Ann Plunton, Ruth Hamlin, Clark Bates, Jackie Rudberg, Marleane Simpson, Audrey Vivier, Joan Papel, Dick Tupper, Joan Kemp, Delores Garney, Rosalia Kemp, Romyne Stanek, Marjorie Dewar, Joyce Boyd, Helena Caltell, Fred Steinkopf, John Oliver, Daniel Burnett, Fred Miller, Delene Domes, Sharon Lancaster, Lois Ayres, Norman Rust, Sally Lutz, Mary Weaver, Dea Quick, Dick Alexander, Snooky Aschenbrenner, Billy Law, Stanley Witom, George Martindale, Nancy Lutz, Alan Alexander, Claire Pomeroy, Joan Crockett, Roger Clark, Ronald Clark, Lucinda Hamilton, Bonnie Sovereign, Robert Lewis, Audrey Adams, Jon Schultz, Dick Schreiber and Diane Westfall.

The Edgewood Mothers Club met at the home of Mrs. Clayton Goetz last Wednesday, with Mrs. Boltho, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Mann acting as assistant hostesses.

Happy Birthday, Comrades

It is proper to note the amount of work the Veterans of Foreign Wars is putting into legislation for the returning veteran and in promoting peace. As everyone knows the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States are not in favor of peace-time conscription, but in obtaining military training while at home in a manner similar to that by which the Swiss now receive it. This form of military training does not take your boy and my boy away from home, but prepares him in his own community so he is capable of ably fighting if an emergency calls him.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States are investigating the care of the veteran in a deplorable state. In our own state, the Veterans' Facility at Fort Custer was found to be fairly well managed, but the Dearborn Facility is far below what it should be. Food and medical care at Dearborn is reported to be bad. Only recently, President Truman relieved Gen. Hines of his post and put Gen. Omar D. Bradley in his place. This should begin improvement, but the entire set-up is bad and if a veteran is put in charge and given full cooperation by Congress, I am sure there would be a 100 per cent improvement, if the veteran is going to get what is due him. The V.F.W. is by far the most active organization investigating this deplorable state and reporting it to the Congress, and the people.

Earl W. Van Alstine, who recently moved back to Cheboygan, Michigan, is now the father of a new baby boy. Congratulations. Earl's address at Cheboygan is 1051 Fremont Street. Edward Tolman became an active member at the last meeting.

Sunday, June 17, a representative of the Farmington Post No. 4033, V.F.W., will go to Lansing to vote the local Post's strength in the Department of Michigan convocation which, due to the war, limits one member from each Post to attend.

It is with extreme sympathy for Mrs. Melinda Schukins that we heard the report that Pte. Hugh Schukins was killed in action. Some mothers and fathers, who send from their home more than one, as in the Schukins family, to fight for our country, hardly expect them all to come home as well as they left. I know the only regret is that Hugh had but one life to give. We salute you, Mrs. Schukins.

Many discharged veterans, and veterans eligible for this organization are home on furlough. You are certainly welcome to join up with this organization, and we would appreciate it if you would get in touch with one of us. The next meeting will be June 20 at the Town Hall, at 8:00 p.m., after June 11 is Flag Day. Don't forget to honor Old Glory.

LIVONIA COMMUNITY SCOUTING NEWS

Information about Scouts of Livonia may be obtained by calling Walter E. Dixon, Farmington 1128.

District No. 7 Camporee
The Boy Scouts of District No. 7 will attend their first District wide Camporee to be held in the past three years. Place: The Middle Ridge Parkway near Edgewood Hines Drive. The Camp Ground is directly south of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. off Plymouth Road. The dates are June 16 and 17.

The Camping and Activity Committees urge that all parents of Scouts and public interested in scouting visit the camp Saturday evening, June 16th to see the display of camping and Campcraft, also they are urged to stay over for the Campfire Program which will start at 8:45 p.m.

Indians, cowboys, Conquistadors, pirates, Padres and pioneers will be present before the Scouts, their parents and friends when James P. Welsh, the Old AAA Traveler of Automobile Club of Michigan, talks on "This Amazing America."

Welsh, veteran newspaperman, magazine writer, radio commentator and traveler-extraordinary, is rated America's No. 1 authority on unusual things, places and personalities, and his notebooks are crammed with the bizarre facts and happenings that form the very roots of American history.

Also the Campfire Program will contain Scout and Indian crebutions, Campfire skits produced by the Scouts themselves.

Come out and witness the routine member at the last meeting. Ed is home, discharged on points, and working with his father at present.

Special Notice

The troop formerly known as LV-1 which met at the Livonia Township Hall was unable to continue from lack of Adult leadership and a sponsoring institution. Let's all get busy and see that the boys of that neighborhood get the Scouting they want.

The parents of all boys within a radius of at least a mile of Farmington and Five Mile Roads should get in touch with some member of the Commissioners staff. If you could get ten fathers, that we were interested we could have excellent scouting in that neighborhood.

This is an opportunity for some Sunday School (adult) class to do a real service for their Church and Community. Any other organization could use this Civic group turn.

What organization or Community group will be first to take advantage of this opportunity? We challenge Newburg also to start the complete scouting program in that neighborhood. They are a most good group that sponsor a troop that needs a couple miles from Newburg. There is nothing to prevent that same group or some other one from sponsoring another troop to meet in Newburg.

Let's have a troop near each neighborhood so all boys have the opportunity of being members of some part of the scouting program. We are prepared to supply a program for all boys from nine to twenty-one years of age.

Attention Scoutmasters

Your Editor, Nelson B. Clatter, 23900 Seven Mile Road, Farmington, Mich., must have all items for this column in his possession not later than Saturday of each week. We need your news to help compose this column. Send it in, please. Thank you.

Rev. Dean W. Parker and family of Hancock, Michigan are spending their vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Parker. Rev. Parker is attending the Methodist Conference in Detroit.
