Members of the 40 and 8 are homesickness with Members of the 40 and 8 are aware of the homesickness with which men and women of the army of forces are beset so they have contracted with a nationally known firm for playing reards at a nominal sum, tax free. These cards are sent all over the world wherever our armed forces are stationed and are distributed among them. Cards are also sent to the hospitals, both overseas and here in the United States. Letters have been received from all the theaters of war telling how much the cards are appreciated. There is leisure time on the transports and at the camps. The cards have filled a great need. The powerment does not furnish cards, and the canteens and alips stores do not sell them. I Therefore their only chance of greating playing cards is to have them given by organizations such as the Forty and Eight.

The cessation of the war rite Europe has increased the call for cards, for many of the boys at the power of the playing cards will be held in Parmington this Sautroky, June 23, It is also Tag Day in Reddford Township and in Northville.
