Salt Checks Fires

Common salt is still a favorite remedy for checking chimney fires. It is thrown on the fire in stove or furnace to smother the chimney blaze. Less soot will gather in pipes and chimney if dry fuel is used and fires are not checked too close by at night.

Fifty years before Gutenberg printed the Bible, the Koreans had developed movable type.

Aged-In Sealed-In Flavor

Nature puts a peel around a banana to keep flavor in... and everything harmful out. For the same reason Altes uses closed, instead of the ordinary open vats. Under this protective seal Altes Lager, like the banana, ages in flavor and ripens to the full perfection of its exclusive Aged-In Sealed-In Flavor. No other beer can offer you so much.

WEST POINT PARK

By L. A. Ault

(June 21, 1945)

A well-arranged shower for the benefit of Larry Lee, newly-arrived son of Pte and Mrs. Lloyd Rhoads, Hubbard Ave., was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Tallman, last Friday evening. A fine group of friends and neighbors, mostly from the immediate locality, were in attendance and contributed numerous useful and beautiful gifts. The occasion proved also a happy get-together of Polker Subdivision ladies. After presentations were made, the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Ina Mae Tallman and Mrs. Fred Sherman, served slices of home-made cake, in generous variety, accompanied by plenty of delicious coffee.

Cosmetic demonstration parties have begun meeting the crowds. Monday night of this week one is being held at the home of Mrs. Austin Ault, Irving Avenue.

Social affairs were in order this last week at the homes of West Point Park graduates of Northville High School, whose commencement exercises were held Thursday evening, the 14th. Friday and Saturday nights "Open House" for relatives and friends was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Shadydale Ave., in honor of Miss Geraldine Wolfe's graduation. Gifts received by Miss Geraldine were not only quite numerous, but unusually lovely.

During the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange, Mrs. Dave Griffith from Detroit, is at the Stange residence on Mayfield Avenue.

The Nelsons, of Norfolk Ave., have Mr. Nelson's mother, Mrs. Nelson, from Detroit, as their guest indefinitely.

The Carrolls, from Detroit, were visiting with old neighbors in West Point Park Friday evening. The Carrolls formerly resided on Mayfield Ave.

Miss Clara Roberts, Mayfield Ave., is the guest of relatives in Detroit for two weeks.

Harold McVicar and Charles Hoff, engaged in a fishing excursion part of the week-end.

The three Hoff children, of Mayfield Avenue, have recovered from chicken-pox.

Pat, young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Middlewood, is visiting his grandmother in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muir entertained Mr. Muir's sister, a WAC from New York Sunday.

Dolores Ault was in Detroit Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Oman and daughter, Ruth Ann, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault two days this last week. Mrs. Oman coming from over in Oakland County and her parents on Irving Ave.

Barbara Harrison was in Detroit a couple of days this last week. Our high school girls are already seeking diligently for summer jobs.

Clinton Ault, accompanied by his Navy son, Wayne M. Ault, now home on leave, attended the ball game in Detroit Wednesday. Tom Harrison has already seized upon several of our young people.

It is said that many patches of the troublesome weed grow along the sides of Farmington Road.

Runaway horses frequently create excitement, particularly among those who have large garden plots in this vicinity. Two such animals came wandering through from beyond Hubbard Saturday morning but were finally captured as they made a dash down Farmington Road.

Meat and other food shortages have become an incentive to adult as well as juvenile delinquency and householders have been warned to cautiously lock their back doors, porch iceboxes and basement entrances. Recently, in the dead of night, the Buckingham chicken house on Norfolk Ave. was entered and a number of fine fowls carried away.

"Palmer's Day" was observed in practically all our local churches Sunday. In the Neighborhood Bible School a favorite prayer of George Washington, Father of Our Country, was used and special mention made of neighborhood men who, though fathers, are in Uncle Sam's service. Names read of such fathers included Jack Sherman, Bill Owen, Henry Steland, Lloyd Rhoads and Ed Jones.

It will be Children's Day in the Neighborhood Bible School next Sunday, June 24th, at 11 a.m. Some special features are being arranged for. All children of the neighborhood will be especially welcome but parents too are invited.

Corporal Wesley Smith is spending the latter part of his 30-day leave visiting friends near Camp Sutton, North Carolina, where he spent part of his training period. He was accompanied to North Carolina by his sister, Miss Dorothy Smith, who is now on vacation.

Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Marine Dall Tallman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman, of Mayfield Ave., to a young lady in California, where he is now located. Complete details of the wedding are lacking but information received is quite authentic.

Bill Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen, Mayfield Ave., and who is an instructor at Chanute Field, Ill., will shortly be less lonely. His wife, Dorothy, has secured a trailer house and with her two little tots, plans to occupy it on a site near the field.

Jack Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman, of Mayfield Ave., is now Sgt. Sherman to a young man is still on duty in the European area, but friends believe he must soon acquire the 83 points necessary to bring him home to his wife, Virginia, and their two small children.

T/Sgt. Forrest E. Ault has been transferred from Sarasota Field, Fla., to Lawndale-Maxton, North Carolina.

Smallest U. S. Sect
The smallest American sect is the Society of Primitive Friends, a Quaker group created in 1851. It has one church at Woodbourne, Pa., and 11 members.
