Back in the old days, after you had grabbed beef in your fists and dug fragments of stew out of a public pot with your fingers, the servants would wheel in a 40-gallon tub of warm water into which you public warm water into which you public scrub and rub-down. From that tub comes today's tinger bowl.

Men To Get Increase In Twill Work Clothes
temporary increase in the amount of herringbone twill available for production of men's work clothing will result from the destaration of a "holiday" for about three months in procurement of this type of finished cotton fair by the Army Quartermaster Corps. WPB announced. Though the "holiday is effective immediately, WPB said, it will be about six weeks before it is reflected in increased quantities of work clothing.

Flavorful Food Fats
Butter, margarine, olive oll, oleo oil and lard are the "flavorful" food fats, it is reported, while the "invisible" fats, or those which serve to add flavor to actual products in which they are found, are the fats eaten as part of coasts, chops, and steaks, and the cream in whole milk.
Salad oils, shortenings, and bland lard comprise a group of fats which are, at least during normal holding periods, odorless and flavorless.

Mix Liver

If you have trouble getting your children to eat liver try preparing it this way: Buy a pound and freeze it and when ready to use it grind a small amount at a time and add it to different foods—scrambled eggs, soup, meal paties, grayy. Freeling makes the liver easier to grind and the children never know they're cating it.
