MEAT SALAD TAKES A BOW

Here's refreshment for a summer day—and such a satisfying dish, too! This Royal Lamb Salad combines cooked lamb with sweet cherries, chopped pecans, celery, and hard-cooked eggs. It's beautiful to look at, distinctly "different," and delicious to eat.

LAD WITH A WHISTLE — Carol Byrne Brink. Guardian for two children of wealth and gentle birth, an unusual responsibility for a young, beginner boy who earned his living by whistling and playing the drums. But strange events which happened fast, brought young Bob McFarland into this amazing situation.

Since Bob is a lad of convictions and resourcefulness, as well as of jolly disposition, he not only wins over the children and becomes their lively playmate, but also circumvents a plot and brings the story to an unexpected and happy ending.

A gay, romantic story of Scotland in the days of Sir Walter Scott, a land of wandering minstrels and high adventure. CALL IT COURAGE — Armstrong Sperry. Matafai was afraid of the sea. It had taken his mother when he was a baby, and it seemed to him that the sea gods sought vengeance at having been circumcised or Mafatia. Some thought he was the son of the Great Chief of Hikueru, a race of Polyneasians who worshipped courage, and another named Stout Hart, he feared and avoided the sea, till everyone branded him a coward.

When he could no longer bear their taunts and jibes, he determined to conquer that fear or be conquered — so he went off in his canoe, alone except for his little dog and pet albatross. A storm gave him his first challenge, and then days on a desert island where he found himself resourceful beyond his own expectation. This is the story of how his courage grew and how he finally returned home exhausted in body, but strong and fearless in spirit — truly Matafai, the Stout Heart.

This is a legend. It happened many years ago, but even today the people of Hikueru sing this story and tell it over their evening fires.

THAR SHE BLOWS — Everett Proctor. This is a story of whaling, New England's lifeblood, which flourished during the last century — the industry which sent good men and bad down to the sea in ships in the pursuit of a life of hardships, danger, and the rich prizes of whalebone and blubber.

In 1856, Cyrus McLean owned the New Bedford Right Whale Company and fully expected his son, Peter, to sail his ships one day as an officer. But when Peter did go to sea, he went under very different circumstances — disgruntled.

WEST POINT PARK
By L. A. Ault

Miss Joyce Varhol has been enjoying a week's vacation visiting with friends in Detroit.

Russell Ault and family left Saturday morning for a week's vacation trip. They planned to visit Niagara Falls.

Critical illness of his mother in northern Michigan called Norman Emerson Ault from his home in Grand Rapids Saturday.

John Atticus Jr. and his sister, Miss Dorothy, have returned from an enjoyable vacation with friends and relatives in California.

Mrs. Chas. Armstrong is recovering nicely from a badly injured ankle sustained accidentally at her home a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen visited relatives in Pennsylvania this last weekend.

A children's party in honor of the third birthday of Miss Pamela Sizeland was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sizeland of Mayfield Ave. last Friday afternoon.

Little Miss Norma Judd, who has been visiting relatives in West Point Park for two weeks, returned to her home near Grosse Point Sunday.

Irvin Bollinger and family expect to spend this week visiting with relatives in West Branch.

Mrs. E. W. Stange and son Edward, visited relatives in Detroit Friday and Saturday.

Donald Bollinger, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bollinger, received a painful injury last Friday when, while aiding his father in the remodeling in process at the Clyde Bollinger home, he received a deep gash in one leg when the member came in suddenly and hit with the sharp edge of a cement block. A physician found it necessary to take several stitches.

Several young ladies of the girl's ball team enjoyed an outing to Bob-Lo last Friday. Mrs. Howard Midwinter was a chaperon.

A "Cup Shower" was in order at the regular meeting of the Sunshine Sisters held in the Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon of last week. The group now has on hand in specially provided shelves a nice number of dainty teacups.

This meeting was also in the nature of a Victory celebration and most interesting reports were given of letters written by local servicemen after the Japanese surrender. Robert Hunter, Forrest iories Ault called on Mrs. Gordon Cameron in Redford Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Tallman, from near Lansing was the guest for a week of her step-son, Jack Tallman and other friends here.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mrs. M. E. Ault and Miss Lora Anne Ault attended a Silver Wedding celebration Tuesday night of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bolland at the latter's home in Redford.

Miss Clara Roberts, Mayfield Ave., has entered the employment of the J. L. Hudson Co.

Freda Ault is now spending a week with her niece, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, over on Clarita. Mrs. Johnson has been on the sick list several days.

Mrs. Alice Sherman, Farmington Road, has been visiting in Kansas City with her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Owen, accompanied by her.

Mrs. Nelson and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Nelson Sr., made the trip to Grand Rapids Saturday.
