CLARENCEVILLE
(By Mrs. Axel Rutla)

Girl scouting was duly ushered into this community for another year when the council leaders and committee people met at the home of Mrs. Keller on Eight Mile Tuesday morning for the first joint meeting of the different troops, where problems were ironed out.
Mrs. Carrothers presided over the meeting. Mrs. Ruslander, Oakland County organizer, held a meeting with the group and answered questions and made suggestions.
A series of training classes under Mrs. Ruslander's direction were decided on, the first class to meet Thursday, October 4, at Central School at 7:30 p.m.
Mrs. Charles Meyer and Mrs.
Arthur Walsh were among the new scouts present. We are all looking forward to these training classes with much interest, the old timers with a brush-up in view and the new scouts with much to be gained. There is always a place open in the ranks for new scouters, so please step forward. We need your help.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sponen-burgh of Louise have returned from vacationing in New York City.

The Moyer family of Rensselaer spent some time visiting with relatives in Missouri.
With restrictions being lifted Tom Williams of Jefferson has entered his car in the midsize races in different parts of the country.
Ruth Peters, daughter of the Fred Peters of Colwell, left on Sunday for Lansing, where she entered Michigan State college.
Ruth was numbered among the graduates of Farmington High School last June.

Mrs. Dave Ryall attended a home coming at Detroit Macabees last Thursday evening.
Norman Sponenburgh, of Louise Avenue, is entering the University of the Fall term next week.

Boy Scouts Rally. Brimnough, Glen Grimmer, Peter Rousseau, Rutla, Swarthout, Tank and Carl Westberg carried O.K. to second place in the rally held at Burton Woods over the weekend, competing in drill and inspection, signaling (Morse and Semaphore), ven-erbal message relay, first aid, fire by friction, dressing and undressing relay, compass hike, skits and general entertainment.

Scouters Falkner, Axel Rutla, Axel Rutla and Kenneth Swarthout, were with the boys. Burton Woods is a beautiful place and with the ideal weather more could not be asked for.
Leonard Monette of Ontario is spending the remainder of his summer season in the north country.
The Manly Kellys of St. Francis have Mr. Kelly's mother from Port Huron as their guest this week.
Mrs. Helen Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barnes attended an Eastern Star dinner in Detroit on Tuesday evening.

VERA BROWN
WRITES COLUMN
FOR THE TIMES

Vera Brown, Detroit Times star writer, whose reports on the shifting scenes of Detroit's life and numerous novels have been read by many thousands, has taken on a new role — that of a columnist. Her new Detroit Times column called, "Our Times," presents a kaleidoscopic view of Detroit people, places and events. It is, indeed, a mirror of Detroit life.
"As Detroit's Own Author," Miss Brown has written 11 newspaper serial novels, some of which appeared in The Detroit Times including "Sally of Sky Valley," "Clendella of the Skies" and "Redhead." "Redhead" was made into a motion picture.

Miss Brown, author, reporter, playwright and radio speaker, most recently won acclaim for her column reports from New York on veterans' returning from the war.
This star newspaperwoman is especially equipped to write a Detroit column. She has come from know countless Detroiters and has a familiarity with Detroit possessed by few. Her long experience as a newspaperwoman makes her unusually well qualified to write "Our Times," now appearing daily in the daily Detroit Times.
