Happy Birthday, Comrade
Edward H. Shafer, Oct. 27.

The Farmington Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of America, will journey to Pontiac Sunday, October 28, to attend the all day first post-war Pow Wow of the 5th District. The 5th District is the largest in Michigan, and the parade which will course through the main thoroughfares of Pontiac promises to be a big affair. There will be a dinner, ritual ceremonies and a meeting at the Pontiac High School Gymnasium. Commander Gee will be in charge. The boys here will remember the help we were given by Commander Gee when we were helped us put in the Farmington Post.

Several recruits from Farmington will journey to Pontiac to take their obligations when the Fairview team puts on the ritual open to the public at the High School Gymnasium at two o'clock.

William Fairley is moving out of his present location, and will soon build a garage of his own at Union and Grand River. We will all lay our cars up until you get opened Bill.

By the way, any service that can be rendered a veteran of overseas service can be straightened out through our Service Office, William Fairley, at his place of business, Grand River and Tuck, Road in Farmington.

Our new member and next year's campaign is under way. If you are entitled to membership in the V.F.W. see any of the present members who will see that a membership card will be filled in and this name submitted.

Parents of last year's charter members and new members send your dues to the Quartermaster, Mr. Carpenter, 33430 Shawwassee, for the coming year, right away. The next meeting of the V.F.W. is at the Town Hall on November 7, at 8:00 p.m. Everyone bring a new member.

CLARENCEVILLE

Rose Marie Butler, of Renaissance Avenue, was feted at a surprise party given by her fiancée's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, at their home in Dearborn, last Sunday, October 14. The occasion was her 18th birthday. Rose Marie received many lovely gifts, and was again honored at a party given Monday by her classmates at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Margaret Ann Fischer of Renaissance Avenue, was honored guest at a party given in honor of her

Mr. and Mrs. William Hodgins were honored on Saturday evening by Mrs. Hodgins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jean LaPorte of Cambridge Avenue, at a belated wedding celebration, belated because Corporal and Mrs. Hodgins were married when the Corporal was in service, and he has been overseas. Sixty friends and relatives from Detroit, Chicago and Farmington were present. The young couple received many gifts of money, and items with which to start their home.
