Want Fewer Parties on Your Rural Telephone Line?

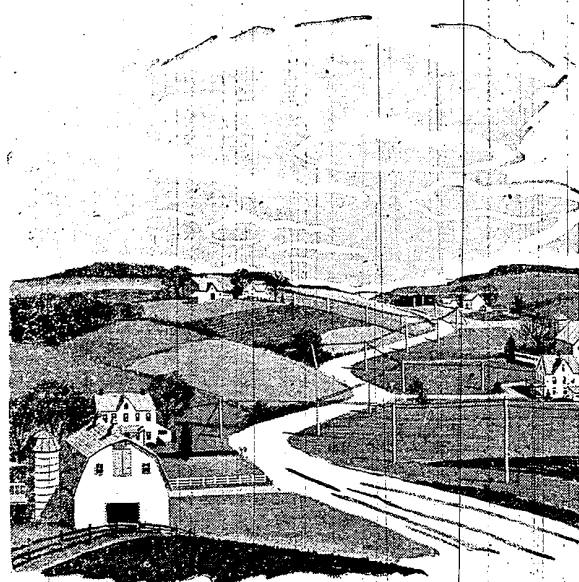

There's good news for farmers and other rural residents in Michigan Bell's 5-year $13,500,000 rural expansion and improvement program. Here are some of the ways this program will give better service to more people:

1 Construction of more lines will mean fewer parties per line for many customers. That will make service better, faster and more pleasing for all concerned.

2 Important new devices and new construction methods will make telephone service available to more rural families than ever before.

3 Michigan Bell also plans to install dial telephone systems in many more rural sections — another big step forward in increasing the speed and accuracy of rural telephone service!

4 In accordance with the plan worked out with the Michigan Rural Communications Committee, a group of agricultural leaders, we will continue to provide a liberal amount of free line-construction, with small monthly payments in cases where construction charges are involved. This will mean more farm families with telephones — more people you can reach from your telephone!

Afternoon Coffee Party

An afternoon coffee is an ideal way to entertain your friends. It's easy, inexpensive and exceedingly hospitable. You know, there's nothing like a delicious cup of coffee to create an atmosphere of friendly cheer. And when in addition to plenty of well-made coffee you serve this Coffee Jelly Ring, the party is sure to be a great success. It's one of those desserts you can make ahead of time, top, and have ready and waiting in the refrigerator. Coffee Jelly Ring is well worth trying.

Here is a party dessert that is distinctly different. The rich, dark color of the coffee-flavored ring and the light tone of the ice cream contrast sharply with one another giving a most pleasing effect. And the contrast in texture is equally attractive. Even if you're not planning to do any entertaining, surprise the family with this unusual treat. Here is the recipe for Coffee Jelly Ring. It's tested, of course.

Coffee Jelly Ring

2 tablespoons undiluted coffee
4 cups cold water or cold coffee
4 cups gelatin
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons honey
2 cups corn
1 cup corn
1 cup corn
1 cup corn

Soften gelatin in cold water or coffee. Dissolve with hot coffee. Add sugar and honey or corn syrup. Stir until dissolved and cool. Set in cold water. Add sherry. Pour into a ring mold and set in refrigerator to chill. Yield: 8 servings.

Note: Jelly may be put into six small molds and served with ice cream on the side table.

Convalescents, Be Careful

By Courtesy Of SMITH-BRADLEY DRUG CO.

The convalescent period which follows an illness is one of the most difficult for the average patient. Time moves slowly, one's strength returns by degrees, there is the most extreme impatience to be up and doing.

It is the time above all others to heed the doctor's dictum: "Take it easy." All the good work that has been done may lead to a serious relapse if care is not taken, with the next convalescent period demanding twice the time and attention. Doctor's orders must be heeded. These may be comparatively simple: Rest, of course, particular attention to the diet indicated, regular, refreshing sleep.

Take what medication is required regularly, obtain it from a careful druggist. This is the Thirty-Fifth of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week. This is the Thirtieth of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week. Copyright

Too Much Chinese Motif
The claim is made that dresses and other feminine apparel based on "Chinese guerrilla" motifs, military decorations, battle equipment and so on, are in bad taste and irritate both civilians and servicemen to whom these subjects are extremely grave. Groups concerned over national morale, are heading for a scrap-to-the-finish with those designers allegedly overdoing the war theme in gowns, accessories, etc.

Residents Warned To Save Ration Books

A warning to save war ration book four was issued this afternoon by W. E. Fitzgerald, Detroit OPA District Director, on the heels of an announcement by the Secretary of Agriculture that meat rationing had ended. "This leaves only sugar on the ration list," said Fitzgerald, "and as long as it remains rationed, buyers will have to present their ration books and coupons, as in the past, to make sugar purchases."

Fitzgerald further requested that all retailers turn in their red points or coupons to their ration banks in compliance with the order removing meats, butter, margarine, shortening and salad and cooking oils from the ration list.
