

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather William R. Turner, who departed this life five years ago, January 15, 1941. Deep in our hearts lies a picture, of a loved one gone to rest, in memory's frame we will keep it. Because he was one of the best. Our lips cannot speak how we loved him, Our hearts cannot tell what to say, God only knows how we miss him, As we battle along life's rough way. Sadly missed by his loving children and grandchildren. The Turner Family 11-1-9

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Nichols continued the tribute by giving something of the home and personal life of these two men. He spoke of Mr. Cook as "a builder as well as a merchant" for he has built three homes, besides the original home and his grandmother built, elsewhere Mr. Cook is again living. He built his store building, and the hardware now owned by Emory Hatton.

In 1905 a bright young lady by the name of Anna Way started clerking in the store, and Fred Cook and Miss Way were married in 1907. They have two children, Robert and Florence Tripp, and two grandchildren, Judy Cook and Billy Tripp.
