Novi.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, recently discharge our rom the Army. She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. William Munden. For her wedding sin wore a white wool street-length dress with matching hat of jwhite roses, and veiling, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and visitable her liewers coming. and giadioli, her flowers coming from Carifornia.

The matron of honor wore light-blue and carried an arm bouques of old tashioned flowers.

The bride graduated as a nurse

The bride graduated as a pursal from St. Louis Lutheran Hespital in 1939, and since that time has been employed at the St. Louis Maternity nospital: She also directed an orchestra at this piace. The groom graduated from the Walled Lake High School wijn tune class of 1932. He helped his father at his saw mill, and was employed at Ford Motor until the time of his induction into the service. He was discharged Novem. ber 18, after seeling action in England, Germany, France, Luxem, bourg, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Holland and Wales.

is a proven method, it stands out because it actually produces good writers. It needs no ex-cuses for failure. All who make an honest effort to follow its rules are rewarded by the sat-isfaction of seeing their pro-gress go forward by leaps and bounds.

most enthusiastic.

Over 50 students have subscribed to the course so far.
This instant response is very graffying and supports the contention that good writing is needed.
